THE CECIL FAMILY OF MARYLAND

A genealogy and history of some descendants of William Cecil, ca 1665-1749, with some allied Ball families.

The Cecil family history has been a subject of study for over seventy five years. Many descendants have attempted to trace the history back to the immigrant ancestor without success. Some claims regarding the family have found their way into printed records without any proof being submitted to support them. The traditions that the Cecils of America de--scend from Sir William Cecil, Lord Burghley, came to America with Lord Baltimore, that Cecil County, Md. was named for them and other traditions of a similar nature have never been proved by the records and should not be accepted as family history.

This genealogy and history is the result of years of work and research in Colonial, State and County Archives, church records, census and family records and from knowledge of living descendants. I have been very careful to make the records accurate and liberal quotations from or--iginal documents have been made to prove the lines of descent and for historical interest. This may slow down the reading of the text but it gives us a record which cannot be disputed. The first Cecil ancestor we can prove is William Cecil, ca 1665-1749. Other Cecils were in America before him but no proof has yet been found to show he was related to any of them. In my research in the early Maryland records I had the advice and help of the late Mr. Edward H. West, a famous genealogist and hist--orian. Mr. and Mrs. West were both professional genealogists and had done quite a lot of research on the Cecils of Maryland for other clients and gave me the benefit of their research. They were both positive that no acceptable proof had yet been found to establish that the Cecils of Prince George's County, Md. were related to the Cissels of St. Mary's Co., Maryland.

I hope this record will correct some erroneous traditions that have been widely circulated in many family lines in recent years and that it will restore a true history of the past that has been lost for several generations. Many attempts were made to locate living descendants and I am pleased with the success of these efforts but many lines were dropped due to lack of knowledge or indifference on the part of living descendants.

CHAPTER I

GENERAL INFORMATION

Ball 7.50 9-11-'24

The House of Cecil was published in London, England, in 1914. The author, G. Ravenscroft Dennis, stated that much of the material for the book was taken from the Hatfield manuscripts, the papers of the Cecils, preserved at Hatfield Manor. This book was a history of one branch of the Cecil family that was prominent in England for over 400 years. There is no proof that the Cecils in America descended from this line but some abstracts from the book may explain where some of legends regarding the Cecils originated.

"The descent of Richard Cicell, of Alt Yr Yns, in Hertfordshire, can be traced back 15 generations to Robert Sytsylt, who, in the year 1091 assisted Robert Fitz Hamon in the conquest of Glamorganshire and was the father of James Sitsilt, Baron of Beauport. In 1333 John Sitsilt and Sir William Fakenham claimed a certain coat of arms. Edward III re--ferred the dispute to the heralds, who adjudged the right of bearing these arms to Sir John Sitsilt, as a lineal descendant of Sir James Sitsilt, Lord Beauport, who was killed at the siege of Wallingford in 1139"

"A Frenchman, in the 17th century proved to his own satisfaction that the family was descended from the Ceciles of Burgandy and that Sir David Cecil, of Stamford, was the first who settled in England"

"In Restitution of Decayed Intelligence in Antiquities, edited in 1672, it was stated the name Cecil was derived from the Roman Caecillus"

Many legends are recorded and it is clear that we cannot accept any of them as the three cited above contradict each other. William Cecil, Lord Burghley, 1520-1598, was very much interested in genealogy and had several family charts prepared for him. He discarded most of them as un--reliable and left the following, which has been accepted as authenic.

1 Seyceld, Phillip, of Herefordshire. He had a son;
  2 Seyceld, Richard, of Herefordshire, died in 1508, had sons;
    3 Seyceld, Phillip, of Herefordshire. died in 1506
    4 David, Settled in Stamford. died in 1542

3 Seyceld, Phillip, of Herefordshire, died in 1506, had son;
  5 Seyceld, John, of Herefordshire, died in 1551, had sons;
    6 Seyceld, William, " died in 1598, left a will 7 son, unnamed) No further information given
    8 son, unnamed) on these two unnamed sons of John.

6 Seyceld, William, of Herefordshire, died in 1598, left son;
  9 Seyceld, Matthew, of Herefordshire

Matthew Cecil opposed his father's will and two of his sisters appealed to Lord Burghley on the ground that their father, William Seyceld,"wishing to continue the name Cecil in that house had conveyed the property to Robert Cecil and his heirs". As Sir Robert was a son of Lord Burghley they must have been related to the Herefordshire line. Mr. Dennis states "The history of David Cecil, the younger son of Richard, is of greater interest so we may take leave of the Herefordshire Cecils". This leaves the two unknown sons of John Cecil unaccounted for and the Cecils in America could have been descended from one of them.

4 Cecil, David b abt 1472, m Alice Dicons, d 1542, settled in Stamford, Councellor of the borough in 1494, Alderman or Mayor 1504, 1515 and 1526. Yeoman of the King's Guard in 1509 at the funeral of Henry VII, Sheriff of Northampton County 1532 and 1533. Purchased the Manor of Burghley in 1526, from which his grandson, Lord Burghley took his title. He had;

10 Cecil, Richard. Appointed King's Page in 1517, served in various offices of the court, by appointment of the King, and was left 100 pounds by the will of King Henry VIII in 1547. He was named in his father's will in 1542 an d in 1553

11 Cecil, David. He was mentioned in his father's will in 1542 and brought an action against his brother, Richard, over the division of his father's estate (Note-this is the last record of David we have as his older brother, Richard, inherited the family estate-WVB)

10 Cecil, Richard. Born abt 1495 died 1553 m Jane Hechington, 1501-1588

14 Cecil, Robert 1563-1612, First Earl of Salisbury, K.G. He owned an es-tate called Theobolds at which he often entertained the King and Queen. King James liked Theobolds so much that he had Cecil deed it to him, giving him in exchange the palace and Manor of Hatfield. The Manor of Hatfield was an ancient ed-ifice, built in 1108, and Cecil built a new Manor House which was completed in 1612. This Manor became the seat of the Salisbury line of Cecils for over 300 years. Robert Cecil married Elizabeth Brooke in 1589 and they had;

21 Cecil, William 1591-1668, Second Earl of Salisbury, K.G.

15 Cecil, William 1566-1640, Second Earl of Exeter, Lord Burghley

The author of this history was interested only in those Cecils who were prominent in England and he omitted many Cecil lines not important to his history. There is nothing in the book that suggests the Cecils of America were descended from William Cecil, Lord Burleigh, and there were many Cecils in England other than Sir William. So, in the words of the author of this history, "The history of the Cecils in America is of greater interest to us so we may take leave of the English Cecils"

The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. 21, page 283, reproduced the following from early court records;

"At a court held 17 Jan. 1624. Present Sir Francis Wyatt, Sir George Yardley, Dr. Pott and Cap't. Smithe. PETER CECILL, sworn and examined, sayeth that John Dowman used those oprobious speeches, etc."

This is the earliest record found of the Cecil name in America. If Peter Cecil was an immigrant there is no record of any land patents issued on his account. The following is a record of land patents issued between 1623 and 1666 in which the names Cecill, Cissell, Sissel, etc appear, in the early records of the Colony of Virginia;

1654; To Francis Land 200 acres, in Lower Norfolk County, for transport--ing four persons, including WILLIAM SISSELL.
1663; To Nicholas and Maurice Cook 600 acres, in Lancaster County, for transporting six persons, including THOMAS CICELL
1664; To Miles Riley 600 acres, in Rappahannock County, bounding upon the land of ROBERT SISSELL (note that Robert was already there)
1665; To Richard Braham 240 acres, in Rappahannock County, for trans--porting six persons, including WILLIAM CISELL
1666; To David Williamson 6,000 acres, in Accomack County, for trans--porting 120 persons, including ALGERWELL CECILL

"The Prop'ry granted to Wm. CECIL, of Langcomb, County of Oxford, Carp'r, 250 acres of land by Indr dat. 11 and 12 8br '81 in pur--suance of which Th. Holmes issued a warrant, dated 6 Nov. 1682, directed to Ch. Ashcomb to survey to the said Wm. CECIL 247 acres on the So side of Upland Creek. It further appears that Ch. Ashcomb had surveyed to the said Wm. CECIL 125 acres and to Anthony Weaver the same quantity, who purchased it of Wm. But Joseph Richards, purchaser of 500 acres, produced a patent under the Prop'rs hand, dated 25 May 1684 for that very same tract that is presumed to have been laid out to CECIL aforesaid.
ANN CECIL, widow, and THEO. CECIL, son of the said Wm. by Indr of lease, dated 25 Feb. 1685, devised one Moiety of said 250 acres to Jos. Richards of Oxen County, for 999 years and sd Jos. Richards assigned the said Moiety, located in Ashton T'p to Edward Carter on 9 Apr. 1691. The Pro--p'ry issued a Warrant of Resurvey, dated 26 Jul 1701, for resurveying the whole tract of 1,000 acres, of which Jos Richards was purchaser of 500 acres, Edw. Carter 250 acres and Wm. CECIL 250 acres. Wm. CECIL by Ind'r of lease and release, dated 20 Feb. 1681 (note the date *WVB) granted to Anthony Weaver, of Oxen County, 125 acres, the Moiety of his 250 acres"

William Cecil, of Md., was born c1665, and on one occasion he swore in court that "He had spent most of his time in this Province" He could have been a son of one of the above Cecil immigrants to Virginia or he could have been a son of William Cecil, of Pennsylvania. The William Cecil, of Pennsylvania, was referred to as "of Oxford County" which was in England and apparantly he had just arrived in America in 1681 and had not yet found his place in this country. William Penn received his charter to Penna. on April 2, 1681 and sent his deputy, Capt. William Markham, to New York so he could secure the legal surrender of the area granted to Penn, Capt. Markham arriving in July 1681. It appears that William Cecil was well ahead of the new proprietor's arrival in Pennsylvania. Evidently William Cecil died be--fore 1685, leaving a widow, Ann, and a son, Theo. William Cecil, of Penna. could have had a son named William who moved to Maryland and careful research might prove this but at this time the proof has not been found.

In 1635 one T. Cecil made a map of Maryland for Lord Baltimore. This T. Cecil has been identified as Thomas Cecil, a grandson of William Cecil, Lord Burghley and an expert engraver of London. There is no proof available to show he was ever in Maryland. In the court records of Maryland, Liber 2, Fol. 602 one Rowland Sissill witnessed a power of attorney on 23 April 1649 and this is the only record of Rowland Sissill. In 1658 John Cicill demanded 50 acres for his own transportation. In 1665 William Stevens assigned his rights for transporting 5 persons, including one John Sisell. In 1675 Benj. Rogers was assigned rights for transporting 14 persons, including Thomas Sissell. These are the only Cecils, Cissels, Sissels, etc, recorded in the index to early settlers in Maryland from 1633 to 1680. If any others were in the Province they failed to exercise their rights to land due them as im--migrants.

John Cicill, the immigrant in 1658, died in 1698 and left a will in St. Mary's County naming wife Mary, and sons John, William, Thomas, Richard, Robert, Edward and James (WB-7, P-381) William Cicell, son of John and Mary, died in St. Mary's County leaving Arthur, Luke, Margaret, Ann, Matthew and Clare. Thomas Cissell, son of John and Mary, died in 1724 leaving a son, John, and a brother James. James Cissel, son of John and Mary, died in 1717 leaving James, Mary and Ruth. Thomas Sissell, the immigrant in 1675, died in St. Mary's County in 1701 and left a will naming son, George,son--in-law James Thompson, brother, George and daughter-in-law, Betty. Some claims have been made that John Cicill, son of John, the immigrant in 1658, was the same John, of Prince Georges County, who married Elizabeth Sollers, but this has never been proved.

Joshua Cecil, Gent., has been a puzzle to all researchers for many years. He was the King's Attorney, Deputy Clerk of Calvert County in 1694, first Clerk of P.G. County in 1696 and a land speculator. The deed books of Maryland show many land conveyences by him. The P.G. County court records, Liber A, Folio 318 shows the following;

> "Henry Cecil, son of Joshua and Mary, his wife, was born 4 Nov 1696 and his brother twin, Isaac, was christened in Christ Church, in Cal--vert County, the same morning"

Henry Cecil apparantly died young as Isaac was made sole heir to the estate of his father, Joshua, when he died in 1717. Isaac Cecil, son of Joshua Cecil, Gent., made several deeds between 1717 and 1747 and then moved to Westmoreland County, Va. No descendants of Isaac Cecil, son of Joshua Cecil, Gent., have ever been identified. Joshua Cecil, Gent., was an educated man, held offices of responsibility, and acted as an attorney for others. He always signed his name Cecil but most of the Cecils of P.G. County were uneducated and could neither read nor write. Their names were signed for them and written in documents as Cazel, Cecil, Cissel, Sessell, Sissell, etc. About 1810 some of the Cecils changed the spelling to Cissel and these branches of the family have been confused with the earlier Cissel families of St. Mary's County. The relationship, if any, of William Cecil to Joshua Cecil, Gent., is unknown but as the name Joshua appears quite frequently in the William Cecil line there is a possibility that they were related and could have been brothers as their children were born about the same time.

In this first chapter I have included everything that I could find on the Cecils before William of Maryland. I regret that I was not able to identify his ancestors and hope some day some one will find a record, or records, that will provide this proof.

C H A P T E R II

WILLIAM CECIL - ca., 1665-1749

William Cecil, of Maryland,is the first Cecil ancestor we can identify as proof of his ancestors has not yet been found. Apparantly he never owned and land as no land conveyences, from him or to him, could be found in the deed books or land patent books in the Land Office at Annapolis, Maryland. The following documents are sufficient proof to establish him as the ancestor of all Cecil descendants of Maryland.

Court Records, P.G. Co., Liber A, Fol. 146

"It is ordered by the Ct. that the Petitioner be levy free for the future"
(Note-The age of 67 given in his petition was probably correct and agrees with statement he made in 1706/7 that he was 40 years old and places the year of birth as 1665 or 1666. The statement that he had lived most of his life in the Prov. indicates he had lived elsewhere -WVB)

(Note- Thomas Cecil, Sabert Cecil and Samuel Cecil were sons of John and grandsons on William - WVB)

The above is all that I could find on William Cecil but I am sure it is sufficient to establish him as the father of John and Phillip Cecil, of P. G. County, when considered with the documents concerning them, cited below.

This land is located near the present town of Cheverly, Md., which is now a part of the metropolitan area of the city of Washington, D.C. Black Books; 263, 11, 110

"List of taxables in Wester Branch Hundred in 1733; JOHN CECELL, Marine Duval, Sr., Marine Duval, Jr., Thomas Gittings, Thomas Gantt, Jr. and Edward Sprigg" (among others)

John Cecil was the only Cecil listed in the taxables of Western Branch Hundred in 1733. His brother, Phillip, had died that year and his father, William Cecil, had been made levy free the year before. Thomas Gittings, who had sold land to Phillip in 1723, was there and Major Edw. Sprigg, who had sold land to John Cecil, was there as well as Marreen Duvall, who had raised the Cecil children. Dr. Pile had died in 1731 but his daughter, Elizabeth, had married Major Edward Sprigg. John Perre was included in the taxables in 1719 and in 1731 he and William Cecil witnessed Dr. Pile's will. In Nov. 1733 John Perre and Joseph Ray were witnesses to signature of Elizabeth Cecil, widow of Phillip Cecil, on her bond. It is not difficult to follow William Cecil and his two sons, John and Phillip, through their close association with the same people for some forty years.

Inventories, P.G. Co., Liber 67, Fol. 107

John Cecil's administration was filed by Elizabeth CECIL, his Executrix, on 5 Feb. 1759 with SALVET CECIL and SAMUEL CECIL, of Frederick County, as her sureties. Thomas Cecil and James Cecil were mentioned as kindred

The children of Phillip Cecil are definetely established by Accounts Liber 13, Fol. 87, in 1735. On one occasion Elizabeth Cecil swore in Court "No relations to ye deceased in this Province" This statement has caused some researchers to doubt that John and Phillip were brothers. However, Mr. West points out that Phillip's father, William, was still living as well as his brother, John, and that Elizabeth made this statement in order to expidite the settlement of Phillip's estate, which was very small..From the documents cited on the previous pages I can see no reason to doubt that John Cecil and Phillip Cecil were sons of William. However the following records indicate there were other Cecils in Prince Georges County and add to the puzzle of the origin of the Cecils.

The Maryland Historical Magazine, Vol. 30, page 236, reprinted the following; "Prince George's County, April 3, 1719, two plantations claimed by Luke Gardiner but now rented and possessed by John Athey and the widow CECILL, etc"

P.G. Co., Ct. Records, Liber R. Fol 283 & 287

"Nov. 1731 Court; To the Justices of P.G. Co., the petition of MARTHA CECELL, a poor indigent creture, most humbly sheweth that your poor petitioner humbly received your former bounty towards her maintenance humbly prays continuation thereof for the future etc." "It is Ord. by the Court here that the petitioner be allowed 500 Lbs of tobacco for her support to next November and same is assigned to David Crauford for petitioner's use"

"Nov. 1731 Ct. JOSHUA CECELL prefers to the court here his petition; humbly sheweth whereas your petitioner hath had an allowance from the County ye several years past and am still unable to get my living. I humply pray Your Worships will please to allow what you think proper etc. It is ordered by the court here that petitioner be allowed 150 lbs of tobacco for his support to next November Ct."

P.G. Co. Ct. Records, Liber S, Fol 109

"MARTHA CECELL prefers to the Court her petition. Nov. 1732 Ct. The petition of MARTHA CECELL humbly sheweth that your petitioner, being in a poor forlorne condition, continues unable to mantain herself and prays a further supply to help her etc" "It is Ord. by the Ct. here that John Williams be allowed 500 lbs of tobacco for maintenance of petitioner to next Nov. Court."

The question immediately arises as to the identity of this Joshua and Martha Cecil. Could this Joshua have been a brother of William as William himself applied for tax exemption in 1732 and was in no condition to assist a relative. Who was the widow Cecil, living on Luke Gardiner's land down near Pamonkey in P.G. County? Was she the mother of William Cecil? We have the names Joshua Cecil, Gent., Joshua Cecil, the pauper, Joshua Cecil, son of Phillip, Joshua Cecil, Jr. Joshua Cecil III and I had an uncle named Joshua G. Ball, a grandson of Joshua Cecil III so I think the key to to the origin of the Cecil family of Maryland is in the name Joshua. I hope some day someone will solve the riddle but I have not been able to do so. From the records we have the Cecil family, of Maryland, is as follows;

I	Cecil, married;	William Unknown	ca. 1665-1749	died in Frederick County.
II	Cecil,	John	1690-1758	" " P. G. County
III		Phillip	1692-1733	" " " " "

X		William	-1808	Died in Prince George's County, Md.
XI		Thomas	1726-1786	" " " " " "
XII		James	1734-1801

The above is the family of John Cecil as found by Dr. Arthur Bond Cecil and Mrs LeRoy Millikan and in the case of Samuel and Elizabeth this was confirmed by Mr. Wm. Pendleton in his history of Tazewell County, Va. I have not been able to prove all of the children but from the documents citdd on the previous pages I am sure we have proof that Zephaniah, Samuel, Sabert, Thomas, and James were sons of John.

III	Cecil,	Phillip	1692-1733.	Died in Prince George's County

XIII	Cecil,	Phillip, Jr.	-1803	More later

The above family is accurate as it is proved by the Parish Register of Queen Ann's Parish and Accounts, Liber 13, Fol. 87, of P.G. County, Md.

V ZEPHANIAH CECIL ca 1719-died after 1769

Zephaniah Cecil was the only child named in the will of his father, John Cecil, and he was to inherit the land after the death of his mother. In 1733 John Cecil purchased from Major Edward Sprigg 135 acres called Beall's Pasture and in 1769 Zephaniah Cecil sold, to his brother, Thomas Cecil a tract called Twice Bought "being a part of a tract called Beall's Pasture" Right of dower was signed by Mary Cecil, wife of Zephaniah. (DB-AA2, Fol 38) Evidently Elizabeth, Zephaniah's mother, died before 1769 giving Zephaniah the right to sell this land.

The St. John's Parish Register, of P.G. Co., shows that "Elizabeth Sollers SISCILL, dtr of Zephaniah CISSEL was bapt. 5-26-1765" No further record of Zephaniah Cecil was found and if he had other child--ren they have not been identified.

VI ELIZABETH CECIL 1720-
VII SAMUEL CECIL 1721-1785

In 1920 Mr. William Cecil Pendleton, a descendant of Samuel Cecil, wrote a history of Tazewell County, Va. and Southwest Virginia. He claimed that Elizabeth Cecil, who married Thomas Witten, was a sis--ter of Samuel Cecil and that Samuel Cecil and Thomas Witten, both with large families, moved from Maryland to Southwest Virginia about 1766. He included an interesting account of the Cecils and Wittens after their arrival in Virginia, stating that Samuel settled in Pulaski County and that Witten settled, temporarily, in the present Giles County, Va. and in 1767 moved to a tract on the Clinch River and was the first white set--tler in the present Tazewell County, Va. Mrs. Leroy Millikan, in 1954, compiled a genealogy of Samuel Cecil and Elizabeth Witten and traced many descendants down to the present time. According to these records the following are the families of Elizabeth (Cecil) Witten and Samuel Cecil;

Sabert Cecil was the namesake and heir of his uncle, Sabert Sollers The confirmation records of St. Paul's Parish, now in Washington, D.C.., show the names and birthdates of his children under the names of Gabriel and Mary Cecil. The census of Frederick County for 1776 gives the names and ages of the family and Sabert named all of his children in his will

CABERT CISSELL signed the inventory of William CICEAL, his grand--father, in 1749. SABRIT SISELL signed a petition to alter the road over Sligo Creek in Nov. 1749. (Judg. Rec.Book A. 1748-1750) It is clear that he was in Frederick County when that county was formed in 1748. On Nov. 17, 1756 Carleton Tanneyhill sold to SABRETT SESILL, of Fred. County, 100 acres called Kilmarnock Beginning, in Fred. Co. (DB-F, p-107). On August 9, 1770 Martha Page, widow of Bingsly Page and her son, James, heirs at law of Bingsly Page, and David Ross sold to SABROT SISSELL, of Fred. Co., a tract of 110 acres called Charles and William, on Sligo Creek Branch. This said tract was conveyed by Joshua Beall, on 16 Aug. 1776, to Martha Page for her natural life. (DB-PGCo.AA2, p 165)

Note- We have already found that Samuel Cecil, Sabert's brother, was app--ointed surety for the estate of Bingsly Page in 1752 and Samuel was ordered to report to court in 1753 to answer unto David Ross. This indicates there may have been some intermarriage between the Cecils and the Page or Ross families-W.V.B.

Sabert Cecil lived on land now included in Takoma Park, Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D.C. He died in 1809 as his will was proved Jan. 4, 1810 in Montgomery County, Md. (Wills G. page 147)

James Davis who intermarried with Ann Cecil, since deceased

James Cecil - a non resident

William Cecil - Thomas Cecil - Eleanor Cecil who intermarried with Alexander Barrett. Rebecca Cecil (Hall?) the only child of Rebecca Hall. Jemima Cecil who intermarried with Joseph Davis, both dead , leaving the following children as heirs at law;

Ann Davis - Lucienda Davis - Elizabeth Davis.

It is clear from the record just cited that Samuel Cecil and John Cecil, sons of Sabert, left no children. Sabert Cecil mentioned a daughter, Mary, in his will but she is not named in the petition of his heirs so she could have been the "Rebecca Hall" who left the granddaughter Rebecca Hall referred to in the will. For some reason Sabert's estate was not settled for many years after his death. In W.B. S, p-92 is a record of James Davis being appointed administrator of his estate in Jan. 1832. The personal estate was sold Feb 28, 1832 for $427.96 and among the pur--chasers were Benjamin Davis, John Davis, Thomas Davis, James Cecil, Wm. Cecil, Thomas Cecil and Sabert Cecil. Benjamin Davis died in 1833 and left "To my brother, James Davis, all of my estate and I direct my Exrs to provide a comfortable maintenance to my wife, Elizabeth, during her life and I give to my neice, Margaret Cecil, one cow and one calf". Apparantly Benjamin Davis married a Cecil or one of his sisters married a Cecil. Wm. and Thomas Cecil were sons of Sabert and they both had sons named Sabert. It is interesting to note that James Davis came into possession of Sabert Cecil's lands as well as the land of his brother, Benjamin

On Aug. 8, 1937 an article appeared in the Washington, D.C. Eve--ning Star by John Claggett Procter on "Graveyard Links with History" Mr. Procter wrote "Mr. James Davis had in his care the family burial plot, at the corner of Prospect and Greenwood Avenues. There were about 125 graves in this plot. At an early date the plantation around this cemetary was known as the Cecil Plantation, having been inherited by Ann Cecil who married James Davis May 5, 1799. Mr. Davis had in his possession a con--firmation certificate issued to Mary Cecil, in 1734, by the Rector of St. Paul's Church or Rock Creek Church and he thinks she was probably the mother of Sabert" (This is incorrect. We now know that Sabert's mother was Elizabeth Sollers-W.B.) In 1961 the widow of James Davis was living on this property with her son, James Davis, Jr. who was still taking care of the old family burial plot. The property has been in possession of Sabert Cecil, or one of his descendants, since 1749. I regret that I was unable to trace the Davis family back to James Davis and Ann Cecil . I could not locate a will, or estate settlement, for James Davis and the records of the present Davis family do not extend back to the first James Davis. I believe the confirmation certificate in 1734, referred to by Mr. Davis, was for Mary, the daughter of Phillip, born in 1716 as there was no other Mary Cecil living at that time and she would have been 18 years old in 1734.

vi Cecil, James, 1759-1833

The following record of James Cecil is made with reservations as the proof that he was a son of Sabert is not positive. The documents that follow lead to the conclusion that the James Cecil referred to is the "non resident" referred to in the petition of Sabert Cecil's heirs in 1834

Marriage Records, Garrard Co., Ky.

1809 Nancy Cecil & William Brown. 1817 Polly Cecil & Robert Jones
1832 Richard Cecil & Laura Scott. 1832 Charlotte Cecil & Walter L. Hix.
1832 Mahala Cecil & Robert C. Boone. 1834 James Cecil & Nancy Montgomery
1834 Catherine Cecil & James Bryant. 1835 James Cecil & Polly England.
1838 Thomas Cecil & Anjeletta Pulliam.

The above records indicate that James Cecil was already in Ky. in 1809, the year Sabert Cecil died. Sabert left James, his son, 5 Sh. but no land. Sabert's land was on Sligo Branch as was the land sold by James in 1810. James, of Ky., died in 1833 but James, son of Sabert, was referred to as "a non resident" by the heirs of Sabert in 1834. Possibly the other heirs did not know of James' death or concealed it from the Ct. to avoid getting the heirs of James involved in the estate settlement. A thorough check of the records of Garrard County, Ky. might clear this up but I was unable to locate any descendants of James Cecil

v Cecil, William, 1761- son of Sabert, from p-19

The Parish Register of Prince George's Parish, Montgomery County shows the births of the children of William and Verlinda Cecil, viz;

Mary Marie Ramsey	1799	Sabert Henry	1801
Sarah Ann	1803	Elizabeth	1805
James Bell	1808	John Wilson	1810

No further trace of this family was found in the records of P.G., Frederick or Montgomery Counties, Maryland.

viii Cecil, Thomas, 1771- son of Sabert, from p-19

In D.B.-BS 8, -p-312, Mont. Co., is a deed dated 6-1-1837, from Thomas Cecil to son, James R. Cecil, viz; "For all goods & chattels of Thomas Cecil, for use and support of Deborah, wife of said Thomas Cecil, and pay to Helen Washington, Sabert S. Cecil, Mary Ann Crawford, and Ann Crawford, children of Thomas and Deborah, and balance to be divided among nine children of Thomas and Deborah . (Note-All children not named)

The Parish Register of Prince Georges Parish, Montgomery County, shows children of Thomas and Deborah were born as follows; Ann 1800, Nancy 1806 and Washington 1813. The marriage records of Mont. Co., shows Mary Ann m Osborn Crawford in 1823 and Sabert Cecil m Margared Crawford in 1828. From these records we get the following family.

viii	Cecil, Thomas	1771	d after 1850 census

These census records indicate that Soloman Cissel was a son of Thomas Cecil and that William and Thomas, presumed to be nephews, were living with him in 1850. In 1860 William and Margaret, his wife, were living with Osborn Crawford and Mary Ann, his wife. The Parish Register shows that Washington Cecil was born in 1813 whereas the census record shows Washington Sissell was b in 1807. If any descendants of the above families live in Washington, D.C., Montgomery or Frederick Counties they failed to respond to my request for information. Any descendant interested should be able to prove descent from family records and traditions

IX CECIL, JOHN (Son of John)

Dr. Cecil and Mrs. Millikan claimed that John Cecil had a son named John but I have been unable to prove this as the records I found apply to John Cecil, son of Phillip Cecil, and will be included later in a chapter on Phillip Cecil

Deed Book JRM-12, p-626, Prince George's County, Md., shows the following bill of sale;

"1 May 1808, for $40.00, William Cecil, sells to James Beall 1 black colt, 1 horse, 2 cows, 1 heifer, 7 hogs, 5 pigs, 2 beds and bedding with all my household goods furniture and farming utensils"

Apparantly William Cecil realized he did not have much time left as five days later, on May 6, 1808 he made his will which is recorded in Will Book GMR-B, No. 1, Fol. 384, as follows;

"To my loving wife Rachel Cecil all of my estate, real and personal, that I am possessed of, or otherwise entitled to, and I appoint my loving wife, Rachel, my sole Executrix"
Signed by (X) mark. Proved June 1, 1808. It would appear from this will that William Cecil had no children.

The census of St. John's and P.G. Parishes for August 31, 1776 shows Thomas Cecil age 50, with two males ages 15 and 5, Mary Cecil, age 50 and one female age 15 and four slaves. Thomas Cecil took the oath of fidelity in 1778 and the Intendant of Revenues Day Book, No 1, page 17, shows that the property of Thomas Cecil, confiscated during the Revolut--ionery war, was sold in 1785. In 1769 he bought from his brother, Zeph--aniah Cecil, land called "Twice Bought, beig a part of a tract called Beall's Pasture, lying on a branch called Cattail Branch." (DB-AA-2,P-38) (Note that this was a part of the same land John Cecil bought from Major Sprigg and willed to his wife, Elizabeth, and after her death to Zephaniah)

In Oct.,1772 Thomas Cecil, of P.G. County, bought from John Belt Jr., for $175.00, a tract called "Recovery Enlarged, which is all of the second vacancy added to the original tract called Recovery for Col.Jere--miah Belt about 15 Feb. 1762, cont. 222½ acres" In 1779 he sold to Wm. Waters a tract called Recovery Enlarged. In 1784 he purchased from Joseph Wilson "One negro girl named Phillis, about 11 years old, and one negro boy named Alex" The bill of saled was witnessed by Phillip Cecil, presumed to have been his first cousin, son of Phillip, Sr. (DB-FF, No. 2, Fol. 81) His will is recorded in P.G. County, Will Book WB-T, Fol 244, viz;

"I, Thomas Cecil, of Prince George's County, to my wife, Mary Cecil, all of my estate and after her decease to my daughter, Ann Beall" Signed 5 Dec. 1786, proved 19 Dec. 1786.

The first account of Mary Cecil, Exex. of Thomas Cecil, was made June 24, 1791 showing a balance of 361; 07; 01. I was not able to ident--ify the two sons of Thomas Cecil but Mr. J. Ninian Bell has given me the following record on Ann Cecil, daughter of Thomas Cecil;

Ann Cecil, 1756-1816, m 1772 Ninian Beall, 1751-1784, descendant of Ninian Beall, the immigrant, who in 1707 signed a deposition on behalf of Dr. Richard Pile which William Cecil also signed. Ninian and Ann Beall had Horatio, 1773-1840, Elizabeth b 1775, George, 1780-1856, and Cath--erine, 1783-1816. Horatio Beall, son of Ninian and Ann, m Harriet Bar--ron and they had Ninian 1817-1892, who m Angelina Beckett. They had Frank--lin Beall, 1855-1936, who m Ella V. Meade and they had J. Ninian Beall b 1891 and Frank Beall, 1896-1962 who was Lt. of Police of Washington, D.C. prior to his death. Mr. J. Ninian Beall lives in Chevy Chase, Md. and is a member of the Sons of the American Revolution on the record of Ninian Beall, who married Ann Cecil. He states that his research on the Beall family discloses that after Ninian Beall died, in 1784, his widow married Richard Mullikin and they had Mary, Catherine, George and Ninian. Also Flora who m Zachariah Barron

The census of 1776 shows James Cecil, age 42, with sons 12, 8, 3, and 1, daughter, Elizabeth, age 15 and twin daughters age 10. The Parish Register of P. G. Co., shows a James Cecil was buried in 1801. The marriage records of Mont. Co. show that Phillip Cecil married Rachel Lizure on Oct. 10, 1799. This Phillip has been confused with Phillip, son of William, who also lived in Montgomery County, had a wife named Rachel, and moved from Md. to Rowan County, N.C. about 1800. Scharf's History of Western Md. Vol. 1, page 663, states that the Phillip who m Rachel Lizure was a son of James Cecil. The following is the family of James Cecil, from Dr. Cecil's book;

The marriage records in Annapolis, Md. show that Ann CISSEL m Jacob Barry, Jr., in A.A. Co., in 1824 and Samuel CICEL m Mary Summers in P.G. Co., in 1828. These are presumed to be children of William Cecil but no further trace was made

(5)	Cecil, Josephine		1843
(6)	Leonidas		1845	m 1875 Helen S. Owens
(7)	James Prescott
(8)	Marcellus

Most of the record of James Cecil was taken from Dr. Arthur B. Cecil's book, William Cecil of Maryland. Dr. Cecil is a son of Leonidas and Helen S. (Owens) Cecil and he has traced down many descendants of James Cecil, son of John Extensive research has been done on the descendants of John Cecil, of Prince George's County, Md. and a lot of family history on his line has been published. Dr. Cecil's book, Mrs Millikan's manuscript and the Newman report is available to the public. Dr. Russell L. Cecil, of New York, N.Y., Mr. S.G. Sample, of Edna, Tex., Mrs. Minerva Knight, Mrs. A.V. Reeves, Mrs. Ollie Mae Carpenter and her daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs Narcissa P. Tynes, of Baltimore and the History of Tazewell County, Va. all have records on John Cecil and some of his descendants. I have reproduced some of these records and added some missing family lines and cited documents to support much of the material that his been published. I do not think a further record of the descendants of John Cecil would be justified as it would be a duplication of records already published. Therefore, the balance of this manuscript will be on the history of Phillip Cecil and some of his descendants as very little information has ever been made available on this branch of the Cecil family.

END OF THE JOHN CECIL FAMILY LINE

C H A P T E R IV

Phillip Cecil, (Junior) is shown in the census of 1776 with sons 14, 3 and 1. His wife, Elizabeth is shown as 35 yrs old with dtrs 13, 10 and 7 and 5 and he had two female slaves, ages 40 and 13. On June 18, 1770 the following deed was recorded in P. G. County; "Jeremiah Belt, of Prince George's County, leases to PHILLIP SESCELL all that tract or parcel of land whereon the said SISCEL now lives, called Mt. Arratt and a tract call--ed Hudsons Range cont. 140 acres to have and to hold said tract for twenty years, paying yearly 950 Lb of Tobacco in cask at Bladensburg warehouse" (D.B. AA-2, Fol. 132)

Apparantly Phillip was already living upon this land as a tenant. He took the oath of fidelity in 1778 and on June 22, 1785 he received a certificate for one stray horse "one iron grey mare, about 13 hands high, 7 or 8 years old, no brand, found near Mr. Snowden's iron works" (D.B. FF-2, Fol. 279). He appears in the census of P.G. County for 1790 with one male under 16, 3 males over 16, five females and three slaves. In 1798 he purchased land in Anne Arundel County and appears in the census of that Co. for the year 1800. The Prince Georges Parish Register, Montgomery County shows that Phillip Cecil was buried Jul. 5, 1803. The most interesting record of the entire Cecil family is contained in Chancery Papers, No 5537, preserved in the Land Office in Annapolis, Md. These papers are so interest--ing that abstracts from them are reproduced below.

"To the Honorable William Kilty, Esq., Chancellor of Maryland, Humbly complaining shew your Honor your Orators Basil Warfield and Ann, his wife, Samuel Cecil, Jesse Smallwood and Elizabeth, his wife, Benjamin Belt and Jane, his wife, Richard C. Jones and Sarah, his wife, of A.A. County and John Belt and Rebecca, his wife, and Samuel Cecil and Rich--ard Cecil. That sometime in the year 1802 or 1803 Phillip Cecil, of Anne Arundel County, died intestate seized in fee of 233 acres of land lying in said county being part of a tract called Snowdens Manor leav--ing nine children, his heirs at law, to wit; Anne, Samuel, Zachariah, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Jane, John, which said John is dead without issue, Eleanor and Zephaniah. They further state that your orator Basil War--field intermarried with the said Ann, John Belt intermarried with said Rebecca, James Smallwood intermarried with said Elizabeth, Benjamin Belt intermarried with the said Jane. The said Eleanor intermarried with John Smith Suite, both of whom are dead, having in their lifetime conveyed their interest in the said lands to the said Zephaniah Cecil. They fur--ther state that the said Zephaniah Cecil is since dead leaving eleven children, to wit; Your orators Sarah, married to Richard C. Jones, Eli--zabeth, married to James Selby, Samuel Cecil, Richard Cecil, Eleanor Cecil, who has since died without issue, Phillip Cecil, Thomas Cecil, William Cecil, Catherine Cecil, Martha Cecil and Joseph Cecil, which said Phillip, Thomas, William, Catherine, Martha and Joseph Cecil are infants. Your orators also state that the said Zephaniah Cecil was twice married and that the said Sarah, Elizabeth, Samuel, Richard, Phillip, Thomas, William and Catherine Cecil are issue of the first marriage and the said Martha and Joseph are issue of the second marriage. Your orators also state that the said Elizabeth married a certain James Sibley and is dead without issue so your orators are advised that her interest descends to her brothers and sisters generally. Your orators alledge that the sale of the said lands would conduce greatly to the interests of the infant dependants and all other parties concerned and that the said lands will not admit of a division without grest loss to the parties concerned etc."

These papers were filed on July 4, 1815. In the Sept. 1815 term of Chancery Court a decree was entered authorizing the sale of the lands and appointing Basil Warfield as Trustee to make thee said sale after posting bond of $4,000.00. On June 3, 1817 John Belt petitioned the court to have the purchase money paid to the Farmer's Bank of Maryland saying in his petition that;

"Your petitioner is apprehensive that if the money is paid to the said Trustee he will misapply the same as he is much embarrased in his cir--cumstances and is addicted to drink and your petitioner conceives he would suffer great loss as one of the sureties of the said Trustee"

These Chancery Papers give us positive proof of the children of Phillip Cecil, Jr. and of his son, Zephaniah. From these papers and other sources we can get the family of Phillip Cecil, Jr. as follows;

In Chancery Papers No. 5537 the name was spelled "CECIL" without exception. Sometime after 1815 some of Phillip, Jr's descendants adopted the spelling "CISSEL" and I have succeeded in tracing many of these descend--ants down to the present time. The St. John's Parish Register shows that Zephaniah Sissill was b in 1763, Samuel Sissill was b in 1773 and Zach--ariah Sissill was b in 1776. In Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, by Warfield, the author confused the above named Zephaniah Cecil with Zephaniah, the son of John Cecil. The following deeds are on record in Prince George's County;

JRM-5,538; 5 May 1797 Richard Ridgley sells to Zephaniah Cissel tract in P.G. Co., called James & Mary, 125 acres, together with tract called Hughes Discovery, 201 3/4 acres etc.

JRM-9, 511; 13 Mar 1803 John Wells sells to Zephaniah Cecill part of tract called Bachelor's Choice and part of Little or Nothing.
JRM-10, 485; 5 Jan 1805 Zephaniah Cissell sells to John Belt tract called James & Mary and tract called Hughe's Discovery. Rt. of dower by Catherine JRM-16, 95; 13 Dec 1813 Zephaniah Cissel sells to Elhanar Cobb two tracts called Hughes Discovery and Addition. Rt. of dower by Rachel Cissel, wife

The marriage Records at Rockville show that Zephaniah Cissell m Rachel Johes in 1809 and Catherine Cecil m Samuel Perry in 1824. The P.G. Co. records show Elizabeth Cecil m James Sibley in 1814, Sarah Cissell m Richard Jones in 1808 and Rachel J. Cicel m James D. Cobb in 1817. We now have a good record of the family of Zephaniah Cecil, as follows;

iii	Cecil,	Zephaniah	1763- cal815,	son of Phillip, Jr.

3 Samuel Cecil, 1792-1824, son of Zephaniah above

In D.B. of P.G. Co., AB No. 3, Fol. 62 Samuel Cissell was shown to have qualified as Justice of the Peace on Sept. 2, 1823. His will was proved in P.G. Co., Sept. 20, 1824 as follows; " To my wife Rebecca V. Cissell. To my two children, Sarah Catherine Cissell and Richard Thomas Cissell. My wife, Rebecca, and my brother, Phillip Cissell, Exers." The Marriage Records at Rockville show Sarah C. Cissell m Zephaniah Jones in 1840. In 1869 a deed was recorded in Washington, D.C. (DB-8, Fol. 4) viz;

"Richard S.T. Cissel, of Elizabeth City, N.J. and Sarah Catherine Jones, the wife of Zephaniah Jones, etc. The income from the said premises shall go in a trust for Rebecca A. Jones, Sarah A. Jones, Mary E.G. Jones, Phillip M Jones and Preston B. Jones, children of the second part etc"

In 1839 Phillip Cissel, as Admn of Samuel Cissel, distributed the balance of Samuel's estate to Sarah Catherine Cissel and Richard Thomas Cissel, $1,299.11 each (Accounts, Lib. PC-2, Fol 382)

iii Zephaniah Cecil

It is apparant that Samuel Cecil, son of Zephaniah, changed his name to CISSEL as did his brothers Phillip, Thomas and William. I did not find Richard T. Cissel, son of Samuel in the census of Washington, D.C. but he moved there before 1854 as shown by the following deed in D.B., JAS 83, p-191;

"11 Sept 1854 Richard S.T. Cissel and Mary C. Cissel, his wife, of Georgetown, D.C., sell to Henry King parcel of land at N.E. corner formed by Bridge and Congress Streets"

Also the following in D.B. JAS 218, p 109;

"1862 R. A. Shinn, for $5,000.00, sells to R.S.T. Cissell parcel of land, lots 171 and 172, in Thomas Beall's addition to Georgetown etc incl all stock and trade goods, ale, porter, cider, bottles, barrels, tubs, etc, used in the mfg of mineral waters and other liquids and all horse carts and carriages belonging to the said business"

In February, 1869 Richard T. Cissel was in Elizabeth City, N. J. as shown by the deed cited on the preceeding page. I did not check for him in N. J. but if he left any descendants they will have no trouble in get--ting the family connection from the information given above.

4 Richard Cecil, 1794-1824, son of Zephaniah

Apparantly Richard Cecil also changed his name to Cissel as the following was found in Inventories, P.G. Co., TT 6, Fol. 274;

"A list of sales of the personal estate of Richard Cissel, late of P.G. Co, deceased, sold 5 March 1824; To Phillip Cissel one shot gun, one saddle, one bible and one razor. To Samuel Cissel one wagon, one ax, one horse, etc"

Evidently Richard was unmarried as no wife or children were named.

6 Phillip Cecil, 1798-1861, son of Zephaniah

Phillip Cecil was mentioned as one of the minor heirs of Zephaniah Cecil, in Chancery Papers No. 5537, and he never married. He changed his name to Cissel and his will,(HWS 1, p-96) proved in Mont. Co., in 1861 reads as follows;

"To my sister Sarah Johes. To my brother Thomas Cissel
To my brother William Cissel. To Rachel S. Cissel, William C. Cissel, Mary E. Cissel, Eugene E. Cissel, Richard H. Cissel, Eliz. B. Cissel, Wilbur Fisk Cissel and Samuel Cissel. My brother, William Cissel shall occupy my farm and receive the profits therefrom. I appoint my nephew, Richard T. iii Zephaniah Cecil

7 Thomas Cecil 1800-18__, son of Zephaniah

Thomas Cecil was one of the minor heirs of Zephaniah Cecil, mentioned in the Chancery Papers. He moved to Washington, D. C and he is the first Cecil (Cissel) whose name appears in the deed books. In 1838 William Lambert, Thomas CICIL and Eliza. CICIL sold a tract of land "Square 26, Lot No. 2, in Washington, D.C., 57 feet on Penn. Ave. extending back to L Street" This is a strip of land about six blocks long and would now be worth a huge fortune. Other deeds as follows;

Jan. 29, 1838	Thomas CISSEL from Richard Smith
Nov. 5, 1838	Thomas CECIL " Richard Lambert three brick dwellings
Jan. 14, 1846	Thomas CISSEL got a release of mortgage from Clement Cox
Jan. 13, 1846	Thomas CISSEL to Stephen Cassin
Nov. 13, 1854	Thomas CISSEL, of Georgetown, to Lloyd Williams
Oct. 23, 1857	Thomas CISSEL, for $1,271.00, sells to the United States a parcel of land on the E. side of Congress St. being part of lots 5 & 6 in that part of town called Old Georgetown

Thomas Cecil also changed his name to Cissel. He married Eliza--beth Lambert March 16, 1826. The following is from the census for 1860, Washington, D.C., numbers added;

8 William Cecil, 1803-1883, son of Zephaniah

William Cecil was one of the minor heirs of Zephaniah Cecil, in Chancery Papers No. 5537. He changed his name to Cissel and we already have a record of his children from the will of his brother, Phillip Cissel. From this and the census of Montgomery County we can get a good record of his family. In 1834 he bought from Levi Viers a tract called "Mount Pleasant" and in 1835 he bought from Hezekiah Trundell another part of this tract. On Oct 12, 1847 he sold to his brother, Phillip Cissel, for $5,000.00 a tract called "Mt. Pleasant" and a tract called "Difficulty and "the land bought of Levi Viers and Hezekiah Trundell" This land lay between Poolesville and White's Ferry in Montgomery County. William made a good bargain on this land because Phillip willed it all to him when he died in 1861. His family;

(3) David T. Cissel

David T. Cissel moved to Washington, D.C. Deeds are recorded for sales to, or from him, in 1861, 1862, 1865, 1867 and 1869. I did not find his name in the 1860 census so no further trace was made. He married Sarah Young in Montgomery County, Md. Jan 7, 1859

(4) Marie R. Cissel

(5) Martha Ann Cissel

Martha Ann Cissel m Henry Young, Jr., and moved into "East Oaks", a plantation inherited by Mr. Young from his father. "East Oaks" stands on the road from Poolesville to White's Ferry and was built about 1825. In 1909 Martha Young sold the place to George W. Brewer who sold it to James S. Clothier. In 1942 the Clothier family sold it to Mr. Daniel J. Callahan who has improved and modernized the old home. The census of 1880, Mont. Co., shows; Henry Young 50, Martha 41, Ann Della 6, Henry Young 9 months, William Cissel 75, father in law, and Mary E. Cissel 35, sister in law. (See Old Homes & Hist. of Mont. Co., page 138)

iii Zephaniah Cecil

(10) Richard Humphrey Cissel

Richard Humphrey Cissel, son of William of Zephaniah, seems to have been the only son of William who remained in Montgomery County. Deed Book EPB-29, p-237 shows the following;

"7 August 1883 Richard S. T. Cissel, Trustee, of New York City, N. Y., by the last will and testament of Phillip Cissel was appointed to make sale of certain real estate. The said trustee, for $8,786.28, sells to Richard H. Cissel part of Mt. Pleasant and part of Difficulty, on the road from Poolesville to White's Ferry, containing 272 acres & 11 7/8 acres"

By this deed Richard Humphrey Cissel came into possession of the land of his father, William, and his uncle, Phillip Cissel. He left a large family and many of his descendants still live in Montgomery Co., The following is a record of his family from census and family records;

Mr. Albert J. Cissel, son of Richard H. Cissel, gave me the above record. Mr. Cissel lives at Quince Orchard, Md., a few miles from Rockville, Md. and has spent his life in Montgomery County. He knew the Cissels were related to the Cecils but did not know when the change of name occured. He has known most of the Cecils and Cissels, of Montgomery County, for the past sixty years. He married Lula Mae Ward and they had Albert J. Jr., b 1919 and Howard G. b 1922. Albert J., Jr. m Elizabeth C. Schaeffer and they had Carolyn C. b 1941 and Edith M. b 1944 and d 1948. Howard G. Cissel m Lucille E. Strosnider and they have Richard A. b 1950, John H. b 1954 and David S. b 1957.

Howard G. Cissel was the first of the Cissels to answer my form letter to all Cissels seeking information and he is due credit for much of the above record.

END OF ZEPHANIAH CECIL (CISSEL) FAMILY

Samuel Cecil was mentioned in Chancery Papers, No. 5537, as a son of Phillip Cecil. The St. John's Parish Register shows he was b in 1773. The marriage records of Montgomery County show that Samuel CECILL m Elizabeth Belt Oct 27, 1802 and that Samuel CECILL m Isabella Belt Feb. 28, 1806. The census of 1810 shows Samuel SCISSEL and in 1820 he is shown as Samuel CISSALL. He died about 1824 or about the same time his nephew of the same name also died. In Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, p430-431, is the following;

"Samuel Cissel m (1) Susie Gartrell Belt and had one dtr, Susie, who m James Turnbill and one son Samuel, who m Margaret Belt. He spelled his name CISSEL. He m (2) Isabella Belt by whom he had Osborn, Zephaniah, Benjamin G., Phillip, James, Richard, Sarah and Margaret. Two of these sons, Osborn and Benjamin, went to Indiana. Phillip purchased the other heirs' interest in Hammond Gist. Richard Cissel removed to Montgomery County and he was a congressman for several terms. Samuel Cissel d in 1864. Benjamin G. Cissel m Mary Ann Childs and had Mary Hortence Virginia, Samuel Nathan, who d in 1880, William Washington Lee and Byron V. In Howard County today (1905) are the children of Phillip Cissel, viz; Wilbur Claud, C.E. Marvin and Phillip also Harry G., Charles A. and Frederick W., sons of Charles Cissel, all farmers"
"Samuel Cissel m Margaret Beall. A notice of the death of his son, George Washington Cissel, states he was b in Washington, D.C., in 1834, and that his mother was a neice of John H, Bell, of Tenn. He was one of nine children, each inheriting a farm in Howard & Montgomery Co's.. He removed to Washington D.C. and went into the milling business. He was Commissioner of the D. of C., and Vice Pres. of the Farmers Bank. His beautiful home was Oakcrest, with ample grounds, in Georgetown, D.C. One son, S. Sewall Cissel, by his first wife, is now a member of the milling firm. The brothers of George Washington,Cissel were; John Bell, Benjamin Gartrell, Charles Alexander, Thomas Bell, William H., Samuel, Nathan and Edwin G.
(Note-The milling firm of Herr and Cissel was the parent firm of the present Wilkins-Rogers Milling Co., of Georgetown, D.C. WVB)

Part of this record seems to be scrambled and is not exactly in accordance with official documents but as it was written in 1905, when some of the grandchildren of Samuel Cissel were still living, we can at least get a record of the family, with the help some wills and deeds and marriage records. The family of Samuel Cissel, Sr., as far as we know it was as follows;

v Cissel, Samuel 1773-1824
m (1) 1802 Elizabeth Belt
1 Cissel, Samuel 1803-1863 m 1825 Margaret D. Beall

William Cissel m Cora Bell Cissel and his brother, Byron V. Cissel m Mary Ada Cissel, daughters of Richard Cissel. Byron V. Cissel was an M.D. in Howard County for many years and I am informed by family descendants that, in 1904, he went to Annapolis and had his name changed to CECIL, by court action, claiming that this was the original name

(2) Sarah E. Cissel 1277650

Judgment Records, EPB No. 1, p-162, shows that Sarah E. Cissel intermarried with Joseph E. Childs. The census of 1880 shows Joseph Childs b 1830, Sarah b 1833, Maggie b 1858 and William b 1859. Tombstones in the cemetary of Grace P.E. Church, Silver Spring, Md. shows;

In 1859 George W. Cissel and wife, Ellenore, sold a parcel of land in Washington, D.C. for $2,500.00 Evidently he was m twice as his will is recorded in Montgomery County, Aug. 21, 1904 and devises "To my wife, Agnes C. (4) Charles A. Cissel

Charles A. Cissel was one of the heirs of Samuel Cissel, named in deed of Feb. 20, 1873, DB-EPB, No. 11, p-388, in Mont. Co., Md. The census of Howard County, Md. for 1870, Savage P.O. shows Charles A. William H. H. Cissel moved to Washington, D.C. In Deed Book ECE No. 21, p-423 by William H, H. Cissel and Margaret, his wife, selling lots 11, 12, 13 in Sq 97, for $835.00, dated Dec 5, 1867. Tombstones in the Congressional Cemetary, Washington, D.C. show that Marie Cissel 1892--1901 and Charles H. Cissel 1876-1878 were the children of William H. H. and Emma Bradley Cissel. It would appear that William H. H. Cissel married twice but no further trace was made.

(7) Samuel N. Cissel

The marriage records, at Rockville, Md., show Samuel Cissel m Mary A. Hearne Mar. 20, 1874. The census of 1880 shows Samuel Cissel b 1847, wife, Mary,b 1852 and brother, Edwin b 1850, living in the same household. His will, proved in 1898, reads; "To John William Anderson one half of my estate and all the rest to my wife, Mary A. Cissel"

Mr. Warfield, in Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, states that Osborn Cissel went to Indiana. No further trace was found in Montgomery County records

4 Zephaniah Cissel, son of Samuel Cissel, No. v.

This Zephaniah Cissel was apparantly m twice. The marriage records at Rockville, Md. show that Zephaniah Cissel m Elizabeth A. Magruder Sept. 7, 1831. The following deeds are recorded in Montgomery County, Md.:

"9 Mar 1833 Benjamin G. Cissel, of Mont. Co., sells to Zephaniah Cissel a tract called Forrest, in Poolesville, which was conveyed by J.M. Williams to Eliza. A Magruder, now Eliza. A Cissel, on 9 Jul. 1831"
"26 Sept. 1849 Zephaniah Cissel sells to Thomas Lee parcel of land partly in Mont. Co. and partly in Howard Co." (STS-4, p-293)
"10 Oct. 1853 Sephaniah Cissel and Mary Ann, his wife sell to Caleb Edward Iddings sixty three acres in Mont. Co." (JGH-2, p-491)
"14 Feb 1863 Mary Ann Cissel, widow of the late Zephaniah Cissel, of the city of Baltimore, and Frederick S. Cissel, of the city of Wash--ington, Richard Simpson, of Howard County, and Ann, his wife, sell tract called Forrest, lying in Poolesville, Md." (JGH-9, p-177)

On Aug. 16, 1859 Mary Ann Cissel was appointed Admnx. of the estate of Zephaniah Cissel, deceased, with bond by Phillip Cissel and James Cissel, of Howard County. (Bonds RWS-3, p-68). In 1861 a division of the personal estate was made to "Ann Elizabeth Simpson, wife of Rich--ard Simpson, Samuel Cissel and Benjamin C. Cissel" (Inv. JWS-5, p-132) In Bonds RWS-5, p-149,150 & 181, payments were made to "Frederick S. Cissel $125.00, B. Clifford Cissel, Ann E. Simpson and F. Samuel Cissel "202.11 each. The census of A.A. County, Md. for 1850 shows,

		Mary A.	1808	Wife
(1)		Ann E.	1833
(2)		Benja. C.	1838
(3)		Frederick S.	1840

It is not known to me whether Elizabeth or Mary Ann was the mother of Zephaniah's children but any descendant would know this from family re--cords. There is an interesting account in Old Homes & History of Mont. Co. about Riverside, a home built by the Iddings family in 1855 on the land bought from Zephaniah Cissel and still in possession of an Iddings descend--ant.

5 Bejamin Cissel, son of Samuel Cissel, No. v.

In Founders of Anne Arundel & Howard Counties the author states that Osborn and Benjamin Cissel went to Indiana. The following deeds are recorded in Montgomery County.

"Dec. 24, 1837 Benjamin G. Cissel and Eleanor W. Cissel, his wife, of A.A. Co., sell to William Cissel, for "1,785.00 a tract called Mt. Pleasant and a tract called Difficulty, being land inherited by Eleanor W. Cissel, George Whittaker, and William H. Whittaker from Ann G. Whittaker"

"Sept. 17, 1849 Patrick A. Whittaker, of Rock Island County, Ill., sells to Phillip Cissel, of Mont. Co., Md., part of a tract called Mt. Pleasant which was assigned to Ann Whittaker from the lands of Patrick Whittaker, deceased" (STS-4, p-384)

"Sept. 10, 1846 Levi Viers, Hezekiah Trundel & Christine, his wife, of Mont. Co., George Whittaker, of Logan Co., Ky., William H. White, of Yalls Busha Co., Miss. Benjamin G. Cissel and Eleanor, his wife, of Morgan County, Ohio and Patrick A. Whittaker, of Montgomery County Co. State of Tenn, sell to Nathan G. Hampton lots 5 and 13 in the town of Poolesville, Md." Recorded 27 Mar. 1850 (STS-4, p-452)

These deeds prove that Benjamin G. Cissel moved from Maryland to Ohio between Dec. 1837 and Sept 1846. Phillip and William Cissel were sons of Zephaniah Cissel and first cousins of Benjamin G. Cissel. The land purchased by William was sold to his brother, Phillip, in 1847 for $5,000.00. In 1861 Phillip willed all of his land to the children of Wm. as previously noted. Eleanor Cissel, wife of Benjamin G. Cissel was apparantly Eleanor Whittaker, dtr of Alexander & Ann G. Whittaker. I did not find the name of Benjamin G. Cissel in the census of Morgan County, Ohio for 1850 but there was a Benjamin Sissill b 1820, Elizabeth b 1826, Elson b 1846 and Otis b 1858. Any descendant of Benjamin G. Cissel should have no trouble in checking the line of descent from this family from the records in Morgan County, Ohio and family records.

6 Phillip Cissel, son of Samuel of Phillip

The census of A.A. County for 1850 and Howard County for 1870 shows the following family of Phillip Cissel;

The census of Montgomery Co., for 1850, shows a Wilbur F. Cissel age 10, living with James Cissel, bro of Phillip, and his name is listed after all other children indicating he was not a son of James. The census of Howard County, Md. for 1870 shows Wilbur Cissel b 1840, Clara b 1845, Milton L. b 1866, Brown b 1868 and Sallie b 1869. Wilbur was living next to Phillip Cissel and it is assumed he was a son of Phillip

The census of Howard County, Md. for 1870 shows Phillip Cissel age 56, Elizabeth age 46, Isabella R. Walters age 27, Elizabeth Walters age 4 and Cosey L. Walters age one.

vi Zachariah Cissel, son of Phillip, Jr., from page 27

The St. John's Parish Register, Prince George's County, Md. shows that "Zachariah Sissill, son of Phillip & Elizabeth, was born 1-28-1776" The census of Montgomery County, for 1810 shows a Zacha Ciscel with one male 26-45 and two males over 45 with other children. The male bet. 26-45 could have been the above Zachariah but a careful check of the deeds, wills and court records failed to identify any descendants of Zachariah Cissel, son of Phillip, Junior, and Elizabeth Cecil.

This concludes the record of the Cissels as far as I could prove their descent from William Cecil. The Cissels came from Phillip, son of Phillip of William. Zephaniah and Samuel, sons of Phillip, changed the name to Cissel. Others may have changed the spelling but I could find no proof of it. As previously noted John Sisell was an immigrant in 1665, Thomas Sissell in 1675 and John Cicell in 1658. No acceptable proof has been produced to show any relationship of these immigrants to the William Cecil of Prince George's County.

John Cecil was a Pvt. in the Colonial Militia in the company of Capt. Tobias Belt in 1748 (Box 1, Folder 7). In 1756 he purchased a plat called Land Above in the same tract where Phillip, his father bought land in 1723. Surveyors Plat No. 454 reads;

"By virtue of a special warrant of resurvey gtanted to John Cecil, of P. G. Co., 30 Nov. 1762 to resurvey 100 acres of a tract called Land Above, orig. on 10 June 1734 granted unto Thomas Gittings for 232 acres. I have surveyed for the sd John Cecil part of the afsd tract cont. 93 1/2 acres, 17 of which is in the elder survey, 14 3/4 acres lays in a tract called Beall's Pleasure, surveyed for Ninian Beall in 1706. 2 1/4 acres lays in Beall's Pasture, surveyed for Ninian Beall in 1699. The said John

Cecil's part of Land Above contains 76 1/2 acres to which I have added 31 1/2 acres of contiguous vacancy etc 6 Jan. 1763"

The patent to Ninian Beall for Beall's Pleasure reads "on the E. side of Cattle Marsh Branch and S. side of Beaver Dam Branch of the Eastern Branch of the Potomack River" This places the lands where the Cecils lived, from 1723 to 1778, about two miles from the D. of C. line just off of new Rt. 50 to Annapolis and near the present Prince George's Golf and Country Club.

"Nov. 15, 1756 mortgage John Sissell, Jr., to Christopher Lowndes, for 5 Lb, 14 Sh & 6 Pc sells parcel of land, part of Land Above, in the fork of the deep branch and Cattail Marsh Branch etc" (D.B. NN, Fol. 490)
"June 6, 1765 Whereas John Sessell, of P.G. Co., sold to Christopher Lowndes by deed 15 Nov. 1756 all his part of tract called Land Above and whereas said Sessell hath paid the principal and interest the sd Lowndes releases to John Sessell all ye above tract of land" (DB-T.T., Fol 426)

We note that John Cecil added "Jr." to his name in 1756 probably to distinguish him from his uncle of the same name who was still living in P.G. County. Christopher Lowndes was a well to do merchant in Bladensburg, Md., now a suburb of Washington, D.C. His daughter, Rebecca married Benj. Stoddert, the first Secretary of the Navy. Another daughter married Dr. Thomas E. Gantt, brother of Edward Gantt who married Elizabeth Wheeler, a dtr of Robert and Mary Wheeler. Edward Gantt, Jr. witnessed the will of John Cecil in 1776. This information was interesting to me as the Cecils were ancestors of my father and the Wheelers were ancestors of my mother

"To my dtr, Elizabeth one negro woman, Priss, & one negro boy, Bob"

"To my dtr Mary Ann one cow "
"To my dtr Eleanor one cow"

"My dtrs Susannah and Elizabeth, Exers. /S/ By Mark John Sissell
"Wit. Edward Gantt, Jr., John Jenkins, Maxwell Magruder 14 June 1776" Pro 8-22-1778.

The census of August 1776 shows John Cissell as 55 with no other males and Susannah Cissel, age 20, and other females ages 17 & 14. This gives the year of birth of John Cecil as 1721, Susannah in 1756, Elizabeth in 1759 and Lucy in 1762. The marriage records of P.G. Co., show that "Susannah Ceicel m Clement Wilson 5 Sept. 1778". As John Cecil devised his farm to Lucy, his dtr, and left most of his estate to his five dtrs and as the census of 1776 does not show any sons it is evident that sons, John and

Isaac had left the home of their father. No records were found in Md. that would further identify John and Isaac Cecil. The Rev. War index shows an Isaac Cissell and an Isaac Sissel in the 9th Va. Regt. and an Isaac Sissell in the 13th Va. Regt., probably the same man. The Md. Archives, Vol. 18, p-9 shows the muster roll of Regimental troops, Hdq. Annapolis and Baltimore Town, 3rd Company including "John Cissel, enlisted Jan. 20, 1776, at the magazine" No other record was found that could apply to John Cecil, son of John, and this would explain why he was not included in the census of 1776

In the Penna. Archives, 3rd Series, Vol. 22, page 602 is a list of taxables of Fayette County for the year 1786 which includes; which could have been our Isaac from Maryland but proof of this would be almost impossible to get.

"Isaac Cecil, a single man, 17: 8:"

William Cecil, son of Phillip, and his descendants left an in--teresting record in Maryland and I have had access to most of it. I am reproducing, in this chapter, many documents concerning William Cecil and some of his descendants as they will be of special interest to his des--cendants and of general interest to all Cecil descendants.

"Nov. 1751 Ct. The Justices of this Ct. have appointed William Cecill Constable of Sugar Loaf Hundred" (Judg. Rec. 1751, p 166)

The Original Surveyor's Plat, No 5153

"By virtue of a warrant for 42 acres to William Cecil, bearing date of Oct 11, 1752, I have laid out for William Cecil all that tract of land called WILD CATT SPRINGS on the S. side of a branch called Wild Catt Branch which runs into Bennetts Creek, thence N. 51 degrees, W. 80 perches, S. 25 degrees, W. 64 perches, S. 52 degrees, E. 120 perches, N. 80 degrees, E. 60 perches, N. 82 perches by a line to the beginning. Containing and laid out for 62 acres to be held of CONNIGAHAGUE Manor. Surv. 14 Mar. 1753"

Land Records of Md., BC & GS No 2, Fol. 128-129

"Frederick County; In consideration that William Cecil hath due him 62 acres of land, 42 acres by virtue of a warrant to him 11 Oct 1752 and 20 acres he hath paid one Lb. Sterling for, I do certify and grant to Sd. William Cecil all that tract or parcel of land called Wild Catt Spgs. on the S. side of a branch called Wildcatt Branch which runs into Ben--netts Creek etc, Surv. 11 Mar. 1753. Rent 2 Sh & 6 Pc. Given under my hand 10 Aug. 1753, Horatio Sharp, Esq., Lt. Gen. & Chief Gov. of Md."

These documents prove that William Cecil was a poor man and started out with a small farm of 62 acres at a time when land was cheap and plentiful. Wild Catt Springs was about two miles from Hyattstown, Md., now in Montgomery County. Interstate highway No. 70 now passes over this farm which is near the county border line of Frederick & Montgomery Counties. William Cecil lived on this land until his death in 1807, or for 55 years. Although a poor man he was apparantly a shrewd man as he worked out a deal with the Hon. Brice Thomas Beale Worthington whereby he acquired 400 acres of land as shown by the following documents.

"By virtue of a warrant granted out of his Lordship's Land Office to William Cecil, dated 10 Aug. 1767, to resurvey a tract called Wildcatt Springs, in Fredeirick Co., originally on 10 Aug. 1753 granted unto him for 62 acres. I certify I have resurveyed the afsd land and added one piece of contiguous vacancy containing 1427 acres on the S. side of Wildcatt Branch which runs into Bennetts Creek and now laid out for 1489 acres. Resurveyed 20 Mar 1762. On the back of the certificate was the following; For valuable considerations paid to me by Brice Thomas Beale Worthington, of A.A. Co., Md., I do assign and make over to him all my rights & title to the within certificate /S/ 11 Mar. 1766 William Cecil"

Co., and cont. 1489 acr which certif has, for valuable considerations, assigned by sd Cecil to the sd Worthington. The sd deed to be for 338 acres, part of the res--urveyed land, provided the sum of 18 Lb, 18 Sh and 6 Pc be first paid to the sd Worthington on or before Nov. 1st and also quit rents as they shall become due on the sd 338 acres. The sd Worthington, of A.A. Co., for 25 Lb, 5 Sh and 6 Pc paid by the sd Cecil doth ack himself to be fully satisfied and gives unto the sd Cecil all his rights and title to the said 338 acres"

Intendant Of Revenues Letter Book, No. 2, Fol. 318
"5 Mar 1783 Brice Thomas Beale Worthington having presented a memorial to the House of Delegates, last session, setting forth that he was ch--arged by the assessor of Mont. Co. with the whole of a tract called Wild Catt Springs and that he, several years ago, sold and conveyed a great part of sd tract of land. He prays that the Intendant of Revenues be directed to settle and adjust the payments made by him"
"The Intendant of Revenues is of the opinion that the assessment on 400 acres of sd land of Wildcatt Springs, in Montgomery County, ought to be charged to William Cecil, 100 acres thereof ought to be charged to Joshua Cecil, 200 acres ought to be charged to Thomas Whitten (Note-Thomas Witten was married to Elizabeth Cecil and he had been in Va. since 1767 so he also apparantly lived on Wildcatt Springs - W.V.B.) and that the said B.T.B. Worthington be charged assessment on the residue of the said tract being 789 acres"

The nature of these transactions is not clear to me but the Hon. Brice Thomas Beale Worthington was a member of the Committee of Safety and member of the House of Delegates. Apparantly he used the power of his posi--tion to have resurveys made for others in return for deeding back to them a part of the increased acreage. The Cecils were not above taking advantage of this and William, who had started with 62 acres in 1752,wound up with 400 acres in 1762 plus 100 acres for his brother, Joshua, and 200 acres for Thomas Witten, husband of his first cousin, Elizabeth Cecil.

Elizabeth Toole, daughter of William Cecil, went with her uncle, Joshua Cecil, to Ohio. Elizabeth Cecil, daughter of Joshua Cecil m Jarrett Ball and went to Rowan County, N.C. with her cousins, Phillip and Mary (Cecil) Ball. Some records were checked for me by others in N.C. and I have proof that three of William Cecil's children moved to N.C. and evidence that others also went there. Some census records are as follows;

From the deed of William Cecil, in 1805, we have proof that George Cecil was in Randolph County, N.C. The following deed proves that Mary (Cecil) Ball and Phillip Cecil were in Rowan County in 1807;

"Indenture 5 Dec. 1807 William Ball, of Rowan County, N.C., for $200.00, sells to Henry Poole, of Mont. Co., Md., two tracts of land, Widows Pur--chase and Chance, 42 acres. I appoint John Cecil, Sr. and Benjamin Cecil as my attorneys. /S/ William Ball, right of dower by Mary Ball, wife of William. Witnessed by Phillip Cecil and William Piggott" (DB-O, Fol. 52)

Deed Book K, Fol. 57, Mont. Co., shows that John Cecil and Ben--jamin Cecil bought a tract of land from Joshua Cecil in Nov. 1801. Deed Book O, Fol. 50, Mont. Co., shows the following; "19 Dec. 1807 John Cecil and Benjamin Cecil, of Mont. Co., sell to Henry Poole, etc, right of dower by Mary, wife of John, and Annie, wife of Benjamin."

D.B. T, Fol. 112, Mont. Co.

"Indenture 27 July 1816 Benjamin Cecil, of Mont. Co., sells to Martha Riley, for $2,000.00, parcel of land called Wildcatt Springs, Chance, Widows Purchase and Resurvey on Wildcatt Springs that devised to the orphans of Benjamin Cecil by William Cecil, his father, the afsd lands lying adjacent to each other and part of a tract called Chance that was, in the year 1807, conveyed by William Ball to Henry Poole cont. 42 acres" (Note-This was the last record found of Benjamin Cecil or his heirs-WVB)

William Ball had named John Cecil, Sr., and Benjamin Cecil, of Mont. Co., as his attorneys to sell his land. Both John and Benjamin were in Mont. Co., in Dec. 1807 but a John Cecil, Sr., shows up in the census of Rowan County, N.C. in 1820 and Benjamin's name only is on the deed of 1816 conveying the land of William Ball. This indicates that John Cecil had also moved to Rowan County after 1810. Phillip, Thomas and William all appear in the census of 1810 as over 45 years old or they were born before 1765. William was still living in 1830, between 70 & 80. The Balls and the Cecils settled between Brushy Fork and Rich Fork, just off of Rt. No. 29, between Lexington and Thomasville, N.C. From the above records it is clear that when the second generation of Cecils in Rowan County reached maturity and picked mates of the same name that they were marrying first cousins and there had to be more than one sen--ior Cecil in N.C. The census of 1810 shows four Cecil families, including the widow, Julia, as over 45 years old. The census of 1820 shows eleven fam--ilies and the census of 1830 shows twelve families, including William bet. 70 and 80 years old, and the widow, Rachel, between 60 and 70 years old. Davidson County was formed from Rowan in 1822 and thereafter the Cecils were in Davidson. The census of Davidson for 1850 shows 12 families, 1860 shows 12, 1870 shows 13 and 1880 shows 16 Cecil families so it is apparant that many Cecils moved from Davidson County to other counties or other states.

William Ball died in 1816 and his will is recorded in W.B. No G. page 438. He mentioned sons James, Noah, William and John but did not name his daughters although the census of 1810 shows he had three daughters. His will was witnessed by M. Ijams and Allan Cecil and wife, Mary, and son, John were made Exers. Mary (Cecil) Ball died in 1819 and William, her son, was made Exer. of her estate. In Oct. 1838 "William, Mary, Pleasant and Elizabeth Ball convey to Thomas B. Cecil 8 1/2 acres Adj. Peter Hendrick and Grubb" (DB-7, -p-189. In 1841 Levinah Lethco wills "To my son in law, John Ball, to my gr. dtr. Nancy Ball and to my sister Polly Ball". As far as I know I am not a descendant of this Ball family. I wrote to all the Balls in the telephone books of High Point, Lexington, Salisbury, Winston--Salem, Greensboro, Wilksboro and Thomasville, N.C. but received no response from any descendant of William or Jarret Ball so no further trace was made on these Ball families

In 1782 Elizabeth Cecil, dtr of William Cecil, m James Toole. The Archives of Md. Vol. 12, p-171 shows that James Toole was appointed Ensign in the Co. of James Young on Jul. 5, 1776. On Aug. 11, 1776 Capt. Young's Co. was in Baltimore, being armed and equipped. On the 18th the Co. was Ord.

to Philadelphia and on Aug. 30 they were in Trenton, N. J. Capt. Young's company was one of three independant companies under command of Colonel Thomas Ewing and these three companies were engaged in the battle of Harlem Plains, N. Y? on Sept. 15-16, 1776. Heitman's Register of the officers of the Continental Army states that "James Toole was Lt. and Quartermaster of the Md. Battn. of the Flying Camp, taken prisoner at Ft. Washington, N. Y. Nov. 16, 1776 and d in 1833. In 1805 Aden Cecil, son of Joshua Cecil, m Sarah Toole in Fred. Co., Md. It would appear that Sarah Toole was a dtr of Elizabeth Toole or a younger sister of James Toole. When Joshua Cecil went to Ohio Elizabeth Toole went with him. The following records, in Harrison County, Ohio, will prove this;

"5 May 1807 John McMillan sells to Joshua Cecil etc" (Book 1, p-76
Witnessed by Brice B. Cecil and Elizabeth Toole.
"6 Sept. 1818 Elizabeth Toole sells to Levi Cecil etc"(Book B, p 251)
"15 Mar. 1823 Levy Cissel & Polly, his w. sell to Aden Cissel & Patty, his w. part of NW Quarter etc which was granted to Elizabeth Toole on 3 Aug. 1810 by patent from the U. S. Gov't." (Book C, p-245)

It is certain that Elizabeth Toole was in Jefferson County, Ohio, later changed to Harrison County, as early as 1810 and was granted a land patent in her own right. She conveyed land under her own name in 1818 which would indicate she was a widow. However, Heitman's register, referred to above, states James Toole lived until 1833 and it is not understood how Elizabeth could transfer property on her own signature unless the James Toole, who was Lt. of the Md. Battn., was not her husband. A careful check of the records at Cadiz, Harrison County, Ohio might clear this up but I was unable to do so.

No trace was made for the descendants of Susannah (Cecil) Kirk but the following is proof of her marriage to William Kirk;

"Oct 22, 1796, William Cecil, of Mont. Co. sells to William Kirk tract called Chance, adj. a tract calle Wilsons Inheritance" (Book G, Fol. 352)
"Oct. 10, 1804, William Kirk sells to John Shaw tract called Chance, adj. Wilsons Inheritance. Rt. of dower by Susannah, w of William" (Bk.M,Fol 19)

The records cited on the preceeding five or six pages is all that I could find on the children of William Cecil, with the exception of sons Phillip and Archibald whose family lines will follow. I regret that the N.C. Cecils have not been properly worked out in family lines but others may solve this riddle. Mrs. H. W. Regan, 1636 33rd St. N.W., Washington, D.C. is searching for information on the Susannah Cecil who married Gil--liam Regan in Rowan County in 1813. Mrs. Regan is a persistant researcher and may come up with the proof we need on the various N.C. Cecil lines.

The census of Rowan County, N.C., for 1800, shows that Phillip Cecil had one son under 10 years old. This must have been Phillip, Jr., born in 1792. The census of 1810 shows one male under 10 and two males between 10 and 16, which indicates that Phillip had four sons. He also had four dtrs according to the census of 1810. The following will give proof of some of Phillip's children.

"Oct. 18, 1818 Rachel Cecil deeds to my son, John Cecil, 57 acres on Rich Fork" (D.B. No. 27, p-196)
"1819 Thomas Cecil, Sr., & Thomas Cecil, Jr., purchase land on Rich Fork, adj. land of Rachel Cecil Aug. 22, 1822 Rachel Cecil deeds to Benjamin Cecil 57 acres on Rich Fork"
"Apr 26, 1823 Benjamin Cecil, of Davidson County, sells to William Cecil Sr., 20 3/4 acres adj John Welch & James Kennedy. Proved by Wm. Cecil"
"Nov. 9, 1831 Phillip Cecil, and wife Rachel, as LEGATEE for Phillip Cecil, of Davidson County, for $250.00 sell to Samuel Cecil all our in--terest in tract of land said Phillip Cecil died possessed of adj Jacob Brummell etc" (DB. No. 5, p-82)
Nov. 9, 1831 Ephriam Brattain and wife, Elizabeth, LEGATEE of Phillip Cecil, of Davidson County, sell to Samuel Cecil all our interest in tract of land said Phillip Cecil died possessed of adj. Jacob Brummell" (DB. No 5, p-83)
Jan 20, 1839 "To my granddaughter, Rachel Cecil, dau. of John Cecil. To son William Cecil my land and hes is to be Exer." (Wills, Bk 1, p-337)

Rachel Cecil was between 60 and 70 years old in 1830 and from the above we can get the following family of Phillip but it is not com--plete as we do not know whether Samuel and Benjamin, mentioned in the deeds were sons and we can identify only one daughter.

The marriage records of Rowan County show that Phillip Cecil m Rachel Cecil Oct. 7, 1821. It is family tradition that Rachel was a widow of another Cecil when she married Phillip and this is supported by another tradition that Phillip and Rachel had a son named Phillip whereas this Phillip was b in 1816 or 5 years before Phillip and Rachel were married. The following is a record of some of the descendants of Phillip and Rachel from census, family records and other sources;

5 Phillip Cecil b 1816-

From the proof we have it appears that Phillip Cecil was a son of Rachel by a prior marriage and a step son of Phillip. Family traditions say that Phillip Cecil was the spendthrift of the family and that "Papa Cecil" did not give him any land as he did to his other children. After "Papa" died all the other children got together and deeded Phillip some land but as soon as he got the deed he promptly sold it, probably to Joel Anderson, as it is still called "The Joel Anderson Place" in High Point, N. C. I regret that we are unable to identify the first husband of Rachel Cecil but as she was b in N.C. it would seem she married one of the Cecils after he arrived in N.C. The family of Phillip Cecil, from census records was;

The marriage records of Davidson County, N.C. show a Phillip Cecil m Ann Stone in 1836, a Phillip Cecil m Sally Regan in 1848 and a Phillip Cecil m Nancy Imbler in 1849. Only one Phillip Cecil was found in the census of Davidson County. In 1850 his wife was "Nancy", in 1860 she was "Nancy", in 1870 she was "Meha" and in 1880 she was "Necy" It is not known by me whether or not Phillip was married more than once or whether the Nancy shown above was the mother of all the children. Family records and knowledge should clear this up for anyone interested.

54 Cecil, John 1864-1884
The census of 1850 shows John Cecil, age 12, as son pf Phillip. In 1860 John is still living with his parents at age 21. His father d in 1861 and in 1862 he m Sarah Burton and had one son, John, who d at 20 years of age. In 1870 Rachel Cecil, age 76, was living with J. B. Cecil and Sarah, his wife. In 1872 Rachel died and was buried in Pleasant Grove cemetary in Thomasville, N. C.

The above record of the children and grandchildren of Phillip Cecil, 1792-1861, can be proved but proof is not complete for the other children of Phillip and Rachel of Maryland. In 1845 William Cecil, of Davidson County, left a will naming "My brothers John B. Cecil, Thomas Cecil, Phillip Cecil and Reason Cecil and Neice, Alvira Cecil, daughter of Daniel I Cecil". This indicates that Rachel Cecil, widow, who m Phillip Cecil in 1821 may have had children other than Phillip by her first husband. Due to lack of proof no attempt was made to check the descendants of these Cecils, other than Phillip.

The following is a record of some of the descendants of Rev. Samuel Alexander Cecil as furnished by J. Harley Cecil, of Thomasville, N.C., and Mrs. R. L. Brinson, of High Point, N. C.

SAMUEL CECIL, 1794-1874

The records we have are in favor of Samuel Cecil being a son of Phillip Cecil. The proof is not positive and at the risk of error I am in--cluding his family line at this point and the only mistake would be in assuming Phillip was his father as it is certain he was a son of one of the Cecils from Maryland. Evidence against him being a son of Phillip is that census of 1800 which shows only one son under 10 and we know this was Phillip Jr. born in 1792 and he was 8 years old. In favor of Samuel being a son of Phillip is the census of 1810 which shows Phillip with two sons between 10 and 16 or this could be Samuel, age 16, and one other son as Phillip, Jr. would have been 18 in 1810. Also, in 1818, Rachel Cecil deeded "to my son John Cecil, 57 acres" and in 1822 she deeded to Benjamin Cecil the same quantity of land by did not state he was a son. In 1831 Ephriam Brattain and Wife, Elizabeth, Legatee of Phillip Cecil, deeded to Samuel "All our interest in land Phillip Cecil died possessed of"

"Samuel Cecil's father fought in the Rev. War and came from Md. and set--tled on Abbott's Creek. He m Miss Ijams, moved to Clemonsville Township, fought in the war of 1812, had eleven children and moved to Lexington Town--ship in 1873"

These sketches are not very reliable as there is no record of a Cecil who could have been Samuel's father being a soldier in the Rev. War.

War of 1812 Pension Application

"24 Aug 1852 Samuel Cecil, age 58, states that he served as Pvt. in John Frost's Co., under Col Geo. Ellers, Rowan Co., N.C. in the spring of 1814. He served 6 mos. and 2 days"

"4 Sep 1871 appl is 77 years old and resident of Davidson Co., N.C. His wife's name was Henrietta Ijams m in Rowan Co. on 3 Aug 1817. He was Vol. in Co. of Capt John Frost, enl. at Salisbury on 1 Feb 1814 and disch at Salisbury on 8 Aug 1814. He marched to Ft. Decatur, now in Ala. where he saw Gen. Andrew Jackson"

"18 Apr 1879 John B. Cecil, age 38, and Samuel A. Cecil, age 49, have known Calista Cecil for many years & they were present and wit the mar--riage of Samuel and Calista Cecil at the residence of Samuel A. Cecil on 2 Jun 1868. Said Samuel Cecil is dead and his first wife had been dead near 6 years prior to said marriage with said Calista. Samuel Alex--ander Cecil and Nancy Cecil swear that they witnessed the marriage cer--emony of Samuel Cecil and Calista Cecil (then Modlin) by Wilson L. Cecil, an Acting Justice of the Peace, in the month of May 1868"

(Pension of $8.00 per month granted to Calista Cecil)

The marriage records of Rowan County show that Samuel Cecil m Henrietta Ijams on Aug. 3, 1817 and William Cecil was the bondsman. In 1825 Samuel Cecil Sr. and Samuel Cecil, Jr. witness a deed for 75 acres on Rich Fork from John Cecil Sr. to John Cecil, Jr. In 1831 Samuel Cecil purchased from Phillip Cecil his interest in the lands of his father Phillip, and in the same year he purchased from Elizabeth Brattain her interest in the lands of her father, Phillip Cecil, deceased. It would appear he bought out the other heirs' interest in the estate of his father but how do we ex-plain the Samuel Cecil Sr. and Jr. on the deed of 1825? As Samuel Cecil was married in the home of Samuel Alexander Cecil, who was a son of Phillip Cecil, Jr. we can speculate that Samuel's children by his first wife were not in favor of this second marriage of their father. Samuel Cecil made his will Mar. 28, 1867, which was proved Apr. 12, 1875 and from this, the census and family records we can get the following descendants;

ARCHIBALD CECIL, 17__-1820, son of William Cecil. From page 46

Archibald Cecil was the only Cecil left in Montgomery and Fred--erick Counties after his uncle, Joshua Cecil, his brothers and cousins moved around 1800. He was the ancestor of most of the Cecils now living in P.G., Frederick and Montgomery counties and Washington, D.C. I have met and talked with many of his descendants and am grateful for their help and interest in family history which has made possible a record of many family lines down to the present time. For their information I am reproducing some historical documents regarding Archibald Cecil and some of his descendants.

The residue to be equally divided among his seven children, viz; BESSY, SAMUEL, ANN CELIA, WILLIAM, MARY, PRISCILLA and BENJAMIN, to each $4.32½" (Book P, Fol. 47)

These documents give some interesting facts. Archibald was mar--ried twice, his first wife being Priscilla, maiden name unknown. She was over 45 years old in 1800 or was b before 1755. She was apparantly older than Archibald who was between 26 & 45 in 1800. Priscilla died between 1800 and 1804 as Archibald remarried in Dec. 1804. Priscilla was the mother of six of Archibald's seven children and we do not know her maiden name. It may have been Wilson or Hammond as these names appear in later generations. The census of 1790 shows Archibald had two males under 16 years of age but we can identify only one, Samuel, born in 1788, as a son.

Otto (or Otha) Cecil lived on a farm between Comus and Hyattstown, Md., which he purchased from John and Leonidas Willson. He is shown in the census of Mont. Co. for 1850, 1860 and 1870. On Jul. 30, 1860 James H Craw--ford, Benjamin Johnson, James W. Simmons, Otho U Cecil, Thomas A. Baker Nathaniel B. Holland and Zachariah Harris were appointed Trustees for the M.E. The census of Montgomery County for 1880 shows John Cecil, age 43, with wife, Mary, but no children. The census shows Frank Cecil, age 38, wife Ida H, age 32 and son Smith, age 3. I am informed he also had a son named Walter. In D.B. EPB No 20, Fol 133 is a deed, recorded 20 Mar. 1879, "Charlotte Cecil, John W.Cecil and Mary, his wife, Otha F. Cecil and Ida A., his wife, and George W. Cecil and Sarah A., his wife, sell to Henrietta Benton two lots in Hyattstown etc". In July 1891 Nancy W. Smith made a deed "to my dtr Ida A. Cecil, wife of Otho F. Cecil". This is the last trace of Otha Upton Cecil. He is buried in the Mountain Chapel Church Cemetary, near Comus, Md., which church he helped to establish over 100 years ago and is no longer being used. The tombstone marking his grave has fallen down and will soon dissapear unless some descendant takes an interest in it.

Hammond Datha Cecil is shown in the census of Montgomery County, Md. for 1840 as between 20 and 30 years old. Some of his grandchildren still live in Maryland and it is family knowledge that he joined the "Forty-Niners" and went to California in search of gold. One story is that he was never heard from again but his daughter in law, still living, states he sent funds back to his family for several years and he was included in the estate set--tlement of his father, Samuel, in 1864. At any rate he left a wife and five minor children in Md. and never returned to them. In 1850 his son, Christopher C., was living with his grandfather, Samuel Cecil, and Mary A., his wife, and Samuel T., Mary I., and William H. were living with Richard Thompson, his wife's father. In 1860 Christopher, age 17, is still living with his grandfather, Samuel Cecil, in Frederick County, Md.

Cecelia (Cecil) Chrisman informs me that she was told that she was named for a great aunt. This had to be Cecelia Cecil, known as Celia or Selah, who was a daughter of Archibald and William Henry's aunt. She was born in 1795 and was living with Jacob Smeltzer's family in 1850 at 55 years of age. She signed a deed in 1854 and apparantly never married.

Hammond Datha Cecil, son of William Henry, has a son named William Datha living in Brunswick, Md. Cecelia, Lawrence, Linwood, Margaret, Myrtle and William j. , children of William Henry Cecil, all live in or nearby the city of Washington, D.C.

Many of Wilson Hammond Cecil's descendants live in Washington, D.C. and nearby Maryland. Mrs. Lawrence Cecil, widow of Wilson Hammond's grand--son, has assisted me in tracing down several family lines. On June 27th, 1859 Wilson Hammond Cecil purchased from John and Leonidas Willson "parcel of land called Labrynthe and parcel called Willson's Discovery, standing on the west edge of the county road leading from Barnestown to Hyattstown, cont. 66 acres" (JGH-7, Fol 481) Labrynthe was a patent to Gerard Hop--kins as None Left, a part of which was sold to Nicholas Rhoades. The part purchased by Wilson H. Cecil lay across the road from the farm purchased by his brother, Otha U. Cecil. The log cabin built by Wilson Hammond Cecil, or his predecessor, is still visible as a part of a modern dwelling house on the road going from Hyattstown to Comus, Md. Wilson Hammond Cecil and his wife are buried in the Mt. Chapel Church cemetary, a short distance from the farm on which he lived, and their graves are marked by a fine tombstone erected in their memory.

From census and family records the family of Wilson Hammond Cecil and some of his descendants is as follows;

XVI JOSHUA CECIL, c1730-1814, son of Phillip

Joshua Cecil has been a puzzle to family researchers for years. Back in 1891 Mr. B. A. Cecil Stephens wrote "I want the record, biography and history of every Cecil, which should appear in my forthcoming history of the Cecil family in America" Apparantly Mr. Stephen's history did not get published as I can find no record of it. I do have copies of some of his notes in which he has several references to Joshua Cecil but he gives no indication of being able to place him in the family line. Joshua Cecil was my direct ancestor and I have probably put more time and effort on his history than any other Cecil. I think the documents that follow will prove that he was a very poor man, was a soldier in the American Revolution and was not too well thought of by his brothers, sisters and cousins as Joshua does not appear among the names of the descendants of any other Cecil family line.

County, by virtue of a warrant to Joshua Cecil, dated 22 Apr 1774 I have surveyedfor, and in the name of, Joshua Cecil his part of a tract of land and found it contains 88 ½ acres and have added three pieces of vacancies cont. 264 ½ acres making a total of 353 acres to be hald of MONOCACY MANOR by the name of Cecil's Discovery. Surv. 18 Apr 1775, recorded 22 Apr 22 Apr 1776. On back of certificate was "For value received from B.T.B. Worthington I hereby assign and make over to him all my rights and title to the within certif. and desire that patent thereon be issued in his name" Signed by Mark; Joshua Cecil.
Wit; John Worthington, Jr. Jacob Waters (Patent Bk. BC & BG 50, Fol. 277)

1774, May 3; Patent granted unto Joshua Cecil, of Fred. Co., for 11 acres adj. Wildcatt Springs, called Little and Bad, to be held of MONOCACY MANOR. Signed by mark 19 Jan 1779, recorded by B.T.B. Worthington 19 Jan 1779
Patent for 50 acres assigned to B.T.B. Worthington 19 Jan. 1779
1774, Aug. 3.: Warrant granted to Joshua Cecil for 50 acres 3 Aug., 1774, survey made 15 Oct. 1774 for tract called Ivery Hill. Patent assigned to B.T.B. Worthington 18 Aug. 1790
1774, Aug. 3: Warrant granted unto Joshua Cecil for tract called Mirey Branch, 3 Aug. 1774, surveyed 15 Oct. 1774, cont. 14 1/4 acres. Assigned to B.T.B. Worthington 19 Jan. 1779, recorde by Mr. Worthington 18 Jan 1790
Patent Book IC No F., Fol. 76-77)
Note that these three patents were made in 1774, assigned to Mr. Worthington in 1779 but not recorded until 1790. We can only assume that Joshua was living on this land all this time as some kind of a tenant of Mr. Worthington as he was granted warrants to over 400 acres but the only deed recorded in his own name was for 100 acres - W.V.B.

1775, Mar. 3: To the Sheriff of Montgomery County, greetings. Whereas Con--rad Bladensburg, lately of our county of Frederick, on 3 March 1775 did re--cover against Joshua Cecil, late of said county, the sum of 9 Lb. & 10 Sh. damages. Whereas the said Joshua Cecil is convict by the record in our county, make known unto the said Joshua that he appear before the Justices of our County Court, in Frederick, on the 3rd Tue. in Nov. next to show cause etc
Note. The Judgment Record Books of Frederick County from 1772 to 1779 are missing and this reference to 1775 was found in Book for 1781-1783, page 86

Conrad Baldensburg was of the family which founded the town and shipping port of Bladensburg. It is assumed that this bill vs Joshua Cecil was for charges for shipping tobacco. The town of Bladensburg is now a part of metropolitan Washington, D.C. The famous Bladensburg duelling grounds were later located here and it was here that Commodore Stephen Decatur was killied in a duel in March, 1820. Joshua Cecil's name is not in the history books but he was associated with people and places now well know in history

(From The Archives of Maryland, Vol. 18, pages 34-35)

On Aug. 3, 1776 Col. Thomas Ewing received 30 camp kettles for the use of Capts. Posey and Lowe of the Flying Camp and Col. Ewing was ordered to march his Battn. to Philadelphia. On Aug 12, 1776 Capt. Lowe wrote the Council of Safety and requested some hunting shirts for his men. On Aug. 18, 1776 Col. Ewing advised the Council that he had forwarded the three companies of Capts. Lowe, Posey and Young to the Head of the Elk (now Elkton, Md.) on their way to Philadelphia, Pa. On Aug. 30, 1776 Capt. Lowe, Lt. Burgess, Lt. Duvall and Ensign Claggett were in Trenton, N. J. and wrote the Council requesting that their company be constituted as regulars in the Continental Army. On Oct. 13, 1776, Col. Ewing wrote the Council, from Harlem Plains, N. Y. advising that the companies of Capts. Lowe, Posey and Young had arrived there and that Capt. Lowe had been injured at the battle of Harlem Heights on Sept. 16, 1776. He also advised the Council; "By last return I had 237 sick owing to our lying on the cold ground without straw or plank. Great numbers are badly off for clothing and some without blankets as several did not receive any and some of the first three companies lost theirs leaving New York. Our soldiers, what of them are in good health, appear to be in good spirits though ragged and some without shoes"

In a report to the Council, on Oct. 12, 1776, Col. Wm. Smallwood stated; "General Washington expressly sent and drew our Reg't. from its brigade x x to cover the retreatX (from Harlem Heights) xx. On Sept. 16th about 1,000 of the enemy made an attack on our line and the 3rd Va. Regt., joined by the Three Independent Companies and some of the Flying Camp drove them back to their lines" On Nov. 7, 1776 a letter was written to the Council stating that; "I arrived here at White Plains, N. Y. on Oct. 28, 1776 and our people were engaged in a very hot battle. Col. Smallwood's Battn. suffered a great deal and the Col. himself was wounded in two places. I am now with Col. Smallwood's Battn and the Independant Co's.The enemy went off Nov. 5th and it is conjectured that they are to attack Ft. Washington" (Above abstracts from The Archives of Maryland, Vol. 12)

Heitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army shows the following;

William Smallwood, Col. Md. Regt. 14 Jan 1776, wounded at Harlem Plains, N.Y. 28 Nov. 1776. Brig. Gen. Cont. Army 23 Oct 1776, Maj. Gen. 15 Sept. 1780. Thanked by an act of congress for his leadership of Md. troops

Thomas Ewing, Capt. of Smallwood's Md. Regt. 14 Jan 1776, Col. of 3rd Md. Battn. of the Flying Camp July to Dec. 1776

John Hawkins Lowe Capt. 3rd Md. Battn. of the Flying Camp Jul-Dec 1776. Wounded at Harlem Plains 16 Sept 1776. Resigned 10 Oct. 1777

John M. Burgess 1st Lt. of the 3rd Md. Battn. of the Flying Camp July-Dec. 1776

William Duval 2nd Lt. of the 3rd Md. Battn of the Flying Camp Jul--Dec. 1776. 1st Lt. 4th Md. Battn. Dec. 1776. Died 15 Apr. 1777

Horatio Claggett Ensign of the 3rd Md. Battn. of the Flying Camp Jul-Dec. 1776, 1st Lt. 3rd Md. Battn. 10 Dec 1776, Capt. 10 Oct 1777, trans to 5th Md. Battn 1 Jan 1781, to 1st Md. Battn. 2 Jan 1783, Major 30 Apr. 1783, served to 15 Nov. 1783.

The proof is clear that the Maryland Flying Camp, of which Capt. John H. Lowe's company was a part, remained intact from Jul. to Dec. 1776. As Joshua Cecil was a Pvt. in Capt. Lowe's company it is difficult to find a reason to doubt that he did not take part in the activities of this Co.

The following records, found in the National Archives, in Wash--ington, D. C. present a puzzle that I cannot explain; 1779, Jan. 1, List of officers and men of the 3rd Georgia Battalion whose pay has been drawn to 1 Jan. 1779 Includes JOSHUA SISSALL, Pvt.

1779, Jul. 1, List of Officers and men of the 3rd Ga. Continental Battn., commanded by Col. John McIntosh, May 1 to Jul. 1, 1779, incl JOSa CISSELL
1779, Nov. 1, List of names of officers and men of the 3rd Ga. Cont. Battn., whose pay has been drawn Jul 1, to Nov. 1, 1779. Pd. 4 months at 6 2/3 per month. Subsistence from Aug 18, 1779. Incl. Pvt. JOSHUA CISSLE.

There is a difference of opinion on whether it was Joshua Cecil, Sr. of Joshua Cecil, Jr. who enrolled in the Md. Militia in July, 1776. I am convinced that it was Joshua, Sr. as, from records to follow, Joshua Jr. could not have been over 14 years old in 1776, which was too young for service as a soldier. However, it is possible that Joshua, Jr. was the soldier in Georgia in 1779 but Joshua Cecil, Sr. was in Frederick Co., Md on Jan. 19, 1779 as he signed a land patent over to Mr. B.T.B. Worthington on that date as noted on page 68

1781, Nov. 20: Conrad Bladensburg, by Blake Johnson his attorney, and the Sheriff of Montgomery County comes before this court but Joshua Cecil doth not come. Whereupon the said Conrad Bladensburg prays his execution against the said Joshua Cecil for damages, etc (Judg. Rec. Fred. Co. 1781, Fol. 86)
1785, Apr. 9: Brice Thomas Beale Worthington sells to Joshua Cecil, of Mont--gomery Co., all his rights to parcel called Resurvey on Wildcatt Springs Recorded 5 Aug. 1785. (D. B., Mont. Co., Liber C, Fol 123)

1785, Apr. 15: Joshua Cecil, of Montgomery County, Md., sells to B.T.B. (Original Certif. No 185)

1795, Oct. 16: Thomas Witten and James Witten, of Wythe County, Va. sell to Joshua Cecil, of Mont. Co., Md. all their rights to 200 acres of a tract called Wildcatt Springs. /S/ 16 Oct. 1795. (D.B. Liber G. Fol. 191)

Note-It appears some sons and grandchildren were living with Joshua -W.V.B.

1801, Aug. 22: Joshua Cecil, of Fred. Co., Md., sells to John and Benj--amin Cecil, of Mont. Co., tract called Resurvey on Wildcatt Springs, cont. 44 3/4 acres, formerly conveyed to Joshua Cecil for 50 acres. /S/ By Mark Rt. of dower by MARY Cecil, wife of sd Joshua. (DB-K, Liber 87)

1802, Sept. 14: At the request of Joshua Cecil the following deed was re--corded, viz; Ind. 5 April 1802 Phillip Witten, of Washington County, and Northwest Territory, Ohio, for 5 Shillings, sells to Joshua Cecil all his rights to tract of land in Montgomery County called Resurvey on Wildcatt Springs. (DB-K, Fol. 312)

All these land conveyences between Joshua Cecil and the Hon. Brice Thomas Beale Worthington, from 1766 to 1790, are a mystery to me and the deed of April 5, 1802, recorded Sept. 14 1802 by Joshua Cecil is the last record found on him in Maryland. Joshua was already an old man, his father having died in 1733, but he moved, with most of his family, to Ohio sometime between 1802 and 1807 as the following record will prove;

1807, May 5: Whereas the Land Office at Stubenville, Ohio, on 7 Aug. 1804 granted to John McMillian, of Jefferson County, Ohio, a patent for the S.W. Quarter of Sec. 20, Twnshp. 10, Range 5 and the said John Mc--Millian, for $180.00, sells the said land to Joshua Cecil, of Jefferson County, Ohio. on the 5th of May 1807. Wit: Brice B. Cecil, Elizabeth __? (the latter name is illigible but apparantly "Toole")
(Original Records, Harrison County, Book O, Fol. 76)

Note- Joshua Cecil's name does not appear in the 1790 census but we know he was there from the deed, cited above, on July 21, 1790 - W.V.B.

I regret that I was unable to go to Cadiz, Ohio, and check the records there and failed to find anyone willing to do it for me. Mr. C.A. Hanna's "Historical Collections of Harrison County, Ohio," reproduced some Cecil records but an abstract of all wills, deeds and court orders would add vital information to the Cecil family history

Mrs. Electa Baltzell Lochner spent 10 years in research on the Andrews-Archibald families and a few years ago placed a typed manuscript in the D.A.R. Library, Washington, D.C. She is a descendant of Linny Cecil, who m Johathan Andrews, No. ii above, and has made application to the D.A.R. for supplemantal membership on the record of Joshua Cecil. The fol--lowing family of Linny Andrews was taken from her manuscript.

NOTE- Thomas H. Andrews, son of Hazel and Martha, m Sarah Little 1824-1887. They had a daughter, Emma Jane 1860-1942, who married Thomas Huff Baltzell who was b in 1856 and d in 1956 at 100 years of age. They were the parents of Electa Huff Lochner, nee Baltzell, who compiled an extensive genealogy of the Andrews-Archbold families.

5 Thresa Andrews m James H. Ball who was probably a kinsman of Lyde Ball who m her uncle, Hazel Cecil. They had Rachel b 1821, Eliza 1827-1891, James H. 1829-1889, Thomas A. b 1838, Susannah b 1841, Barton, Vachil and Sarah Ann.

iii Cecil, Levi, born between 1760 & 1770, d after 1830
m Jun. 27, 1804 Martha Toole in Frederick County, Md.

Levi Cecil was willed $4.00 by his father, Joshua, in 1810. In 1818 Elizabeth Toole sold to Levi Cecil a parcel of land in Harrison Co., Ohio. (DB-B, P-251) On 15 Mar. 1823 "Levy Cissel and Patty, his wife" sold to Aden Cissel a plat of land in Harrison County. (DB-C, P-245) The following are census records of Harrison County, O.

1820, Cecil, Levi 1 M under 10, 1 Male over 45 (Levi)
5 Females under 10, 2 Fem. 10 to 16, 1 Fem 26-45
1830, Cecil, Levi, Males 1 between 60 and 70 (Levi, b 1760-1770)
Females 1 less 5, 2 5-10, 2 10-15, 3 15-20, 2 20-30
1 40 to 50

Evidently Levi Cecil had only one son and several daughters. His name was not found in the 1840 census so he had apparantly died. No further record was found that would identify his children but a careful check of the records at Cadiz, Ohio might disclose a record of them.

v Cecil, Elizabeth, daughter of Joshua Cecil, Sr.
m 1787 Jarrett Ball in the German Reformed Church, Frederick, Md.

Joshua Cecil devised to "my daughter, Elizabeth Ball". Church re--cords in the Maryland Historical Society, in Baltimore, Md., show that Elizabeth Cecil m Jarrett Ball Jan 11, 1787. The census of Rowan County, N.C. shows the following;

1810-Ball, Jarrett Males 2 10 to 16, 2 16 to 26, 1 over 45. (b before 1765)
Females 1 less 10, 2 16 to 26, 1 26-45, i over 45

The female between 26-45 was evidently not a dtr as she was born before 1784. Four children were b between 1784 and 1794 and as Elizabeth was m in 1787 we can estimate the years of birth as 1788, 1790, 1792 and 1794. The following marriges are recorded in Rowan County, N. C..

1818 Jarad Ball and Lydia Trotter	Bondsman Jeremiah Thomas
1818 Reson Cecil and Margaret Haywood	" Jared Ball
1819 Jaret Ball and Thankful Trotter	" Phillip Cecil
1822 Benjamin Cecil and Elizabeth Cecil	" Jarred Ball
1822 Jarred Cecil and Sarah Cecil	" John Cecil

Other marriages are listed on page 48 and these records show the close alliance of the Ball and Cecil families. Letters addressed to several Balls in Rowan and Davidson Counties, N. C. were unanswered so no further trace was found on this Ball family line

Brice Berry Cecil's name was not found in the census of Frederick County, Md. in 1800. The census of Harrison County, for 1810 is not avail--able and Brice Berry was not found in the 1820 census. He was devised 40 acres by his father's will and made joint Execr. of his father's estate. The following records were sent to me by others and a thorough check of the records of Harrison County would probably disclose the family, if any, of Brice Berry Cecil.

Original Records, Page 76
"5 May 1807 John McMillan sells to Joshua Cecil, of Jefferson County, tract of land etc. Witnessed by Brice B. Cecil"

D.B., A, Page 445
"14 Dec. 1816 John Cahill sells to Brice B. Cecil Sect. 20, Twnshp 10 etc 40 acres being part of same tract granted to Joshua Cecil by John Cahill by Mortgage dated 27 Dec. 1813"

D.B.- B, Page 455
"1 Feb. 1820 Brice B. Cissel, of Harrison County, Ohio, sells to Phillip Cissel, of same county, part of the SW Quarter of Sec. 20, Twp. 10, Range 5. /S/ Brice Bury Cecil"

Brice Berry Cecil apparantly died before the 1820 census was taken or moved from Harrison County. The Phillip Cecil, who bought the land from Brice Berry, was a son of Kinsey Cecil and a nephew of Brice Berry Cecil. No further trace was found of Brice Berry.

The census for Montgomery County, Md. for 1790 shows Kinsey Cecill with one male over 16, one male under 16 and one female. Kinsey B. Cecil is shown on the personal property tax list of Tazewell County, Va. for 1801. Land Patent Book No. 51, P-171 Kinsey Berry Cecill took up 200 acres "on the waters of the Clinch River, adj. Timothy Brown and John Hawkins"

DB. No. 2, P-408
"Indenture 24 Aug. 1815 Kinsey B. Cecil sells to John Greenup a parcel of land in Tazewell County. Ack in Ct. 26 Sept. 1815" (No wife signed)

This is the last record found of Kinsey in Tazewell County, Va. and it is assumed he moved to Kentucky. The U.S. Census of Floyd County, Ky. for 1820 shows Kinsey B. Cecil with a wife and seven children

Census, Pike Co. Ky., 1830 - P-377
Cecil, Kinsey B. 1 M 10/15, 1 M 15/20, 1 M 20/30, 1 M 60/70, 1 Fem. 50/60.

The record of vital statistics of Johnson County, Ky. shows "Kinsey B. Cecil, born in Md., died May 16, 1855, age 85" The Big Sandy Valley, by Ely, Pub. 1887 states "Kinsey B. Cecil settled in Johns Creek Valley where he raised a large family and when quite an old man he moved to the Rock Castle country where he died many years ago. Two of his sons are still living, Samuel and Cobb. A grandson, Cobb, Jr. is a business man in Cattlesburg, Ky. A son, Hon. William Cecil was County Judge in Pike County for many years" The Kentucky Historical Society Register, Vol. 35, states "Kingsbury Cecil, 1772-1855, m 1st Luvana Helvey, Lawrence Co., Ky. He m 2nd Elizabeth Mu--tors in Pike County, Ky" Note that this is in error. Kinsey Cecil was m 1st before 1790 and his son, Phillip, was b in Md. in 1796. Evidently Kinsey was m three times. The census of Johnson County, Ky., for 1850, shows Kinsey B. Cecil, age 79, with Elizabeth Cecil, age 39, probably his 3rd wife.

Mrs. E. F. McCarroll, Dennison, Ohio and Mr. Colbert Cecil, Chesa--peake, Ohio, descendants of Kinsey Cecil, have sent me some family records so the following is the family of Kinsey, as far as we know it.

The census of 1830 shows Kinsey's wife as between 50 and 60 or she was b between 1770-1780. It is doubtful if she was the mother of Thomas, as family records show. In 1850 Thomas was living in a hotel with Colbert Cecil and the census shows he was b in Va. in 1831, several years after Kinsey had moved to Ky. Phillip Cecil, son of Kinsey, was mentioned in the will of his grandfather, Joshua, and by 1820 he had moved to Harrison County, Ohio, as he purchased from his uncle, Brice Berry Cecil, a tract of land in that Co. in Feb. 1820. The following is the family of Phillip Cecil, son of Kinsey, as far as we know it.

(6) Jesse and Nancy (Gladman) Cecil had David Elmer, Laura, Lizzie, Edwin M., Mary Emma, Alfred Edgar and Jesse Lawrence. David Elmer Cecil had the following family;

(7) Mrs. McCarroll advises that her grandfather, David Elmer Cecil, stated that Wesley Cecil was a son of the second marriage of Phillip Cecil and that he went to Indiana and d in Indianapolis, Ind.

2 William Cecil, son of Kinsey B. Cecil

According to family records William Cecil had Colbert, Jr. 1849--1930, Thomas M. 1849-1892 and Pauline b 1841. The census of Pike Co., Ky. for 1860 shows William Cecil, age 57, Pauline,age 21, Jeremiah, age 16 and Cirt or Girt, age 14. Colbert, Jr. is not listed with the family but he may have been with his uncle of the same name in Cattlesburg, Ky as a Col--bert Cecil, age 17, is listed with Colbert Cecil, Sr. in Boyds Co., Ky.

Family records show that Pauline Cecil, dtr of William Cecil m O. C. Bowles. The following is the census record of Pike Co., Ky., for 1870, page 23, Piketon P.O.

(1)	Bowles, Orlando	age 31	(b 1839)

(3)	Josephine	4	1866
(4)	John C.	2	1868
	John T. Cecil	25	Gen. Merchant, Retail
	Crittenden Cecil	22	" " "

I cannot identify the two Cecils, living with the Bowles family in 1870, but Crittenden could have been the son of William who was listed in the 1860 census as "Cirt" or "Girt"

Mr. Colbert Cecil informs me that family records are not complete but either William or Colbert had sons named Erastus C. 1854-1875 and Kenzie Berry Cecil and that the latter moved to Missouri.

The census of 1800 shows Hazel was b between 1774-1784, the census of 1820 shows he was b before 1775 so this places the year of birth as 1774. He apparantly died before 1850 as I could not find him in the census. The census of 1850, Harrison County, shows;

Evidently this was a son of Hazel, of Maryland, and was the male between 10 and 16 in 1820. However proof is needed as Aden Cecil, brother of Hazel, also had a son between 10 and 16 in 1820.

These census records indicate Aden Cecil had three sons and five daughters. The marriage records, Harrison County, O., show and Aden Cecil, age 22, m Rachel Right in 1840. The census of Meigs, County, O. for 1850 shows an Aden Cecil, age 32, wife Rebecca, age 29 and children Mary b 1841, Aliceana b 1843 and Elizabeth b 1849. This was probably the son of Aden Cecil but I did not find the proof for any of Aden's family except for his daughter, Elizabeth, who m Joseph Berkshire. Mrs. Donna Davis,one of Aden Cecil's descendants has given me some family records and and we can trace down one line of Aden's family

From the census of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, for 1850, and Rich--land County, Wisc. for 1860 and data from Mrs. Davis we can get the fol--lowing record.

The History of Tazewell County, by Pendleton, gives an account of the Cecils and the Wittens who moved from Maryland to Virginia about 1766. Thomas Witten, who m Elizabeth Cecil, settled in what is now Tazewell Co., in 1767, and left a large family. William and James Cecil, sons of Sam--uel Cecil and nephews of Elizabeth (Cecil) Witten, also settled in what is now Tazewell County, Va., about 1774. When Tazewell County was formed in 1800 William Cecil, James Cecil and Thomas Witten qualified as Magis--trates of the new county. John Cecil, son of William, was a member of the Va. House of Delegates, 1808-1812. In 1806 John and Samuel Cecil were app--ointed deputy sheriffs. In 1810 John Cecil was appointed Justice of the Peace and in 1833 John Cecil was made County Sheriff

Joshua Cecil's name appears on the tax list of Wythe County, Va. in 1796 and on the tax list of Tazewell County from 1800 to 1820. His bro--ther, Kinsey Cecil, shows up on the tax list of Tazewell from 1800 to 1813 Joshua and Kinsey were distant cousins of the other Cecils in Tazewell but were not as well known so were not mentioned in Pendleton's history of the county. I have spent many days of careful research in the county court re--cords in order to get the proof to separate these two Cecil family lines. This has been very difficult on account of the numerous Cecils in this one county. The following records will establish this beyond any doubt.

Piscataway Parish, P.G. County, Md. p-263

Peery and William Cecil and do say the defendant is guilty and assess his fine to $1.00 and costs"
"14 Jan. 1802 Ct. Ordered that the Overseer of the Poor bind out Eleanor Cecil, daughter of Joshua Cecil,to John Greenup accdg to law. Ord. that the Overseer of the Poor bind out Phillip Cecil, son of Joshua Cecil, to Samuel Witten according to law"

Marriage Records - Tazewell Co., Va.
"1803 Joshua Cecil and Jane Cummings were married by Henry Harman"
(Note- the date is illegible and Harman shows it as 1805 but the location of the entry in the records indicates it was 1803-WVB)

22 March 1825 Ct. "On the motion of the overseer of the poor it is ordered that they bind out THOMAS CECIL, an orphan child, as the law directs and make return thereof to the court."

This was Joshua and his son, Phillip, who was bound out in 1802. The age of Joshua shown in the census is wrong, as he was older than 45. The male with Joshua under 10 would be Thomas and the two males between 10 & 16 were Joshua III and George. The female under 10 has not been identified. The son of Phillip, under 10 in 1820 has not been identified.

1 I did not find Phillip Cecil, son of Joshua, in the census of 1830 but the following is proof that he was in Tazewell County up to 1837.

County Court Records
"24 June 1823 Phillip Cecil paid $3.75 for one old wolf's scalp"
"30 Mar. 1836 Trust deed Phillip Cecil to Buse Harman".
"1 Mar. 1837 Terry Brooks versus Phillip Cecil for debt of $27.35."
This was the last record found of Phillip Cecil and evidently he moved from Tazewell County or died.

3 The Annals of Tazewell County, by Harmon, shows that "George Cecil and Elizabeth Sincentaffey were married by John J. Buren on Sept. 6, 1829. From the census records of 1840, 1850 and 1870 we can get the following family;

3 Cecil, George b 1806, living in 1870

4 In 1823, when Joshua Cecil was about 15 years old, he was bound out on orders of the County Court. The records do not give the name of his guardian but apparantly he was a ward until the age of 21. The following records were found in the county court books;

"25 Apr. 1831 Ct. The Overseer of the Poor versus Joshua Cecil. By consent of the parties this motion is dismissed upon the defendant's confessing judgment for costs."
"23 May 1831 Ct. Ord. that Samuel Peery, Geo. Thompson, Wilkerson Witten and Joshua Cecil be appointed to view and make way for a road from Tazewell Court House to David Whitley's mill."

(4) William Frank Cecil, son of Joshua Cecil.

The only information I have on Wm. Frank Cecil is as follows;

"Sorry I cannot help you on this matter as I am 72 years old and cannot remember back that far. Mrs Amonica Cecil might help you. She is the daughter of Frank Cecil, my father's brother. Write to her in care of K. M. Moore, who is her son-in-law. /S/ Claud Cecil, Jan. 1958"

Mr. Alfred Cecil advises me that, according to his recollection, William Frank Cecil had the following children;

Amonica, Sally, Jesse, Robert, Franklin, Lloyd and Hampton. Amonica Cecil married her first cousin, Alex Cecil, son of James.

(8) Robert George Cecil, son of Joshua.

The information I have on Robert George Cecil comes from Charles R. Cecil, Sod, W. Va. in a letter received in January, 1958.

"My father's name was Robert George Cecil and they called him Bob. There were several children in our family, five boys and two girls. The oldest was Van Buren. The other tw oldest were Millard and Edward, then Georgia, Claud, Charles R. and Brookie, the baby. They are all dead except Claud and Me. Claud lives at McCorkle, W. Va. and he had 7 children. I had 4, Drayton had 13, Georgia had 8, Millard had 8 and Brookie had one who died as an infant. I knew about my father"s brothers, uncles John, Jim and Frank. I knew about aunt Julia and aunt Mary. My father died Dec. 22, 1923"

No further trace of Robert George Cecil's family except for Pauline, a daughter of Millard Cecil, who m Clyde A. Crouch and lives at Barboursville, W. Va.

THE BALL - CECIL FAMILY

William Cecil, who died in 1807, had a daughter, Mary, who mar--ried a William Ball in Maryland and moved to Rowan County, N.C. Joshua Cecil, who died in 1814, had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Jarrett Ball in Maryland in 1787 and moved to Rowan County, N.C. Linny Cecil, another daughter of Joshua, married Jonathan Andrews and she had a dtr, Thresa, who married a James H. Ball about 1821. There may have been other Ball-Cecil marriages unknown to me but these two families seemed destined for many alliances. The relationship of the Balls who married Cecils is unknown to me and traditions in my family do not include a family alliance prior to Peter Henderson Ball and Mary Malinda Cecil who were married in 1851. The County Court Order Book, of Tazewell County, Va., shows;

> ""9 Nov. 1837 Ct. Ordered that the Overseer of the Poor bind out Peter Ball and Rhoda Ball, orphans of Benjamin Ball,deceased, to Reuben C. Fudge with a proviso that the said Fudge shall instruct the said Ball in the art and mystery of bricklaying"

The following is in the census of Tazewell County for 1850, page 248, with notes added;

Fudge, Reuben C.	44	Brickmason
Nancy	41	Daughter of Hezekiah Harman
Elizabeth	16	m 1861 Dr. Thomas G. Witten
Charles A.	13	Cap't. C.S.A. Died in 1912
Harriett L	8	m Capt. A. J. Tynes, C.S.A.
Edwin G.	2
Peter H. Ball	22	Brickmason

When Tazewell County was formed, in 1800, Hezekiah Harman was elected one of the magistrates. He was later appointed Surveyor and Justice of the Peace. His dtr, Nancy, married Reuben C. Fudge in 1831 and for se--veral years she was the foster mother of Peter H. Ball. In 1839 Mr. Fudge was appointed Deputy Surveyor and in 1848 he was given a contract to pave the streets of Tazewell, Va. and as Peter H. Ball was 19 or 20 years old we can be sure he helped on this job. The Annals of Tazewell County, by Harman, page 32, shows;

> "I hereby certify that I solomnized the rights of matrimony bet--ween Peter Ball and Mary Cecil Jan. 8, 1851. William E. Neel"

Elizabeth A. Fudge m Dr. Thomas G. Witten, a descendant of John Cecil, of Maryland, and a distant cousin of Mary Cecil. Harriett Louise Fudge married Capt. A. J. Tynes, C.S.A., and their son, Conrad Tynes m Narcissa Pendleton, the daughter of William Cecil Pendleton who was the author of the History of Tazewell County. Chas. A. Fudge was a Lt. and Capt., C.S.A., was severely wounded and taken prisoner by the Federals in 1864 and held until the close of the war. He was a substitute brother to

Peter H. Ball and a fried of the family for many years. The news of his death in 1912 was received by my father with sadness. In July, 1863 the Federals, under command of General Toland burned and totally destroyed the home of Kiah Harman, brother of Nancy Fudge. This incident must have caused shock and sadness to Peter H. Ball

The following record is in the State Library, Richmond, Va.;

"P.M. or P.N. Ball enlisted June 10, 1863 in Co. G. 25th Regt. C.S.A. Cavalry Bgde. On the rolls Apr. 30, 1864, reported as deserted 8-6-1864"

The following records are in the National Archives, Washington,D.C.

"Peter Ball enlisted Oct. 5, 1862, at Tazewell County, Va., by R. H. Taylor, in Taylor's Co. Caldwell's Battn., Virginia Cavalry, C.S.Army Occupation Shoemaker"
"Peter Ball enlisted Oct. 9, 1862, for three years, in Co. F., 16th Regt., Virginia Cavalry, C.S.A. Occupation Shoemaker. Earned extra pay as a shoemaker. Paid $14.70 on Jan. 3, 1863 for making 42 pairs of shoes at 35 cents each. Wounded Sept. 20, 1864 and deserted the same day"

We can be sure that all of these references apply to Peter H. Ball. It has always been know to the family that he was wounded during the Civil War, having lost two or three fingers in some battle. There is no family knowledge that he deserted and it is more likely that he went home or to a hospital for medical treatment after he was wounded. There is an interesting account of the activities of the 16th Va. Cavalry Regt. in Tazewell's History by Pendleton for anyone interested in it. The census of Tazewell County, Va., for 1860, page 149 and of Mercer County, W. Va. for 1880, page 30 shows the following; (Numbers added)

Information received from Elsie Schmetgen, former wife of Tyler Ball and divorced from him, is that they had no children and that she had heard that he was killed on a construction job in San Francisco, Cal. Others advise that he went to Texas, remarried and had two children.

iii Henderson Elbert Ball, from page 88

The record of births in Tazewell County, Va. show that Henderson E. Ball, son of Peter and Mary Ball, was born Dec. 25, 1855. He was a J.P. in Charleston, W. Va. for many years. He had two daughters, Nora and Mary and the latter married and went west many years ago. No further trace.

iv Charles Miller Ball, son of Peter H. Ball.

Charles Miller Ball was my father. During his lifetime he mentioned, many times, that he was named for his grandmother, Sally Miller. He was very close to his family and they often exchanged visits. He partly raised Roman Harry Ball, his nephew, after the death of Roman Harry's mother. He knew the Cecils came from Maryland to Virginia and knew his grandfather, Joshua Cecil. He managed to get a good education and taught school for many years. In 1901 he entered the ministry of the M.E. Church, South, and continued in this work up until the time of his death.

The map below shows the approximate location of the Cecil farms, as early as they can be identified. The date shown is the date of the first deed, patent or court record that would identify the location. As no deeds or patents were found for William Cecil, the first ancestor we do not know where he lived but we do know he died in Frederick County, Maryland, probably at the home of Samuel Cecil, his grandson, who was made Administrator of his estate.

Dear Librarian:

Thank you very much for the excellent copy of "The Cecil Family of Maryland" by Walter V. Ball. Exceptionally good copywork!

Would you be so kind as to place in your files a notation that there is an error on page 15 of Mr. Ball's book relating to the Greenup family? Mr. Ball states that Elizabeth Witten married John Greenup and moved to Tazewell County, VA. He further states that they had two sons, Thomas and Christopher. The latter is in error.

John Greenup was b. ca 1740 according to his stated age at death in Wayne Co. KY on 27 Nov 1826.
Elizabeth Cecil Witten was born 17 Jul 1743 according to Witten Family History.
Christopher Greenup who became 3rd governor of KY (1804-1808) was b. ca 1750 according to his stated age at death in Blue Lick Springs, KY on 10 Apr 1818.

According to the above stated ages at death, it would be impossible for John to be the father of Christopher who became governor. They might have been brothers.

John W. Greenup and Elizabeth Cecil Witten had a son named John C. Greenup who married Jennie Malinda Cecil. John and Jennie had a son named Christopher B. who was born ca 1810 in Virginia.

Gov. Christopher Greenup lived in Loudon Co. VA and was in Anne Arundel Co. MD in 1776. He went to Kentucky about 1781/2 as did his brother, Samuel Greenup who settled in Scott Co. KY, and his brother William who went to Morgan Co. IL. His sister, Elizabeth Greenup Purnell, died in 1776. It is not known if these siblings are related to John W. Greenup of Frederick Co. MD and Tazewell Co. VA or not. Christopher settled in Franklin Co. KY near Scott Co. where Samuel settled. The families of John W. and John C. Greenup went to Wayne Co. KY then on to Missouri.

Anyone seeking information on the families of the name Greenup may contact me at any time. I am most happy to share information with any interested parties.

Sincerely,

Elise Greenup Jourdan
